Bible film to be shown at Reich's Church

A new color film story of the work of Bibles For The World, called "BEYOND THE HORIZON" will be shown at Reich's Evangelical Congregational Church, RD1, Marietta, on Sunday, April 22, 7:00 PM.

The film is the story of Rochunga Pudaite and the work he and his wife Mawii founded in Wheaton, Illinois under the name of Bibles For The World.

Dr. and Mrs. Pudaite were born in Northeast

India where they continue to have a deep interest in the evangelization of the people. Since 1973 they have distributed over three and a half million free Bibles in 15 countries.

In addition to its mission of scripture distribution, they support a number of native Indian pastors and provide elementary schooling for children of poor families.

There is no admission charge.
