

DID YOU HEAR?

Last week Herr's Fruit Stand in Marietta displayed on their signboard:

"Through sleet & storm and nuclear fear Herr's will still be here."

Photos of the sign, flanked by Willis and Jimmy, were shot by Time magazine photographers and a Swedish film crew.

Herr's didn't make it into Time; they don't know if they appeared on TV in Sweden.

Dean Bricker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Amos A. Bricker, Mount Joy, RD2, the Grand Champion of the Donegal High School Science Fair was third place winner in Lancaster County's Science and Engineering Fair. Bricker's project, "Tracking the Sun," took a total of seven additional awards, as follows: second place award presented by the Pa. Society of Professional Engineers; the Junior engineering Technical Society Award; The Dept of Energy Award; the NASA Award; the Andrew Ellicott Chapter, Lewis & Clark Trail Award; the American Society for Metals Award; and the Superior Ward given by the U.S. Navy.

Upon receiving this last award Dean qualifies to enter the National Navy Science Awards Program Competition.

The winners of this national competition will be eligible for either a week long trip to Hawaii or to attend the London International Youth Science Fortnight or the Japanese Student Science Fair in Japan.
