Timothy Eshelman of Mount Joy, a student at Juniata College, was inducted into Sigma Pi Sigma, the national physics honor society.

The chairman of the physics department there said, "[this] is not only a tremendous honor for him, but for Juniata's physics department as well."

Elam B. Hollinger of Manheim has joined Heistand Memorials, Inc., as a full-time salesman.

Hollinger was previously employed by Garden Spot Meat Products. He is a graduate of Hesston College, Hesston, Kansas, with a degree in elementary education.

A native of Manheim, he is married to the former Gertrude Martin. The Hollingers have five children.

Mr. Hollinger is a Sunday School teacher at the Congregational Bible Church, Marietta. He is also a member of the visitation committee.

Les Koder will have a birthday on April 30th.

Walt and Eleanor Sloan will celebrate their anniversary this Sunday.

Airman James G. Buckius of 520 Donegal Springs Road, Mount Joy, Pa., has completed Air Force basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas.

During the intensive six weeks of training, the airman earned the honor graduate ribbon for academic and military excellence. Completion of this training earned the individual credits towards an associate in applied science degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

Airman Buckius will now receive specialized training in the avionics systems field.

He is a 1978 graduate of Donegal High School.

Marine Sergeant David L. Sanchez, son of Jacinto and Beatrice J. Sanchez of RD3, P.O. Box 40, Mount Joy, Pa., has been promoted to his present rank while serving with the 2d Force Service Support Group, Marine Corps Base, Camp Lejeune, N.C.

He joined the Corps in August 1976.

Albert Kleiner was honored by the Mount Joy Borough Council for "outstanding management service" at the last council meeting.

Kleiner had come out of retirement to serve as acting borough manager. Now that Bruce Hamer has taken up that duty, Kleiner is once again retired. He has a long history of service to his town.

Council gave him a pewter pitcher as a sign of their appreciation.

Former Bainbridge resident knits by Bay of Fundy

Sally Shirk, former Bainbridge resident, stands at the head of Cutler Harbor in Maine. She now lives there.

Sally Shirk, formerly of Bainbridge, moved to Maine in 1971. She has established a knitting business up there.

Sally started knitting at an early age. When she moved to Maine she began knitting sweaters, hats and mittens. Two years ago she acquired a knitting machine and began wholesaling. She designs her own patterns. Harbour Knits, her company, distributes in New England and Pennsylvania.

Sally and her husband, Elliot, live on a small farm at the head of Cutler Harbour (the company is named after the site). From their window they look out over the Bay of Fundy.

The Shirks grow most of their own food and heat their house with wood.

King & Queen contest still open

Enter your child, win prizes

You can still enter your child in the King & Queen Contest of the Marietta Children's Fair to be held on June 9th.

If you live in Marietta Borough and have a child who is between one and three years of age, you can enter by sending a 5x7 photo to Donna Loucks or Lynn Gohn. Each photo will be attached to a cannister and placed in the business of a participating merchant. Money placed in the cannisters by the public will be collected and counted, and the child with the most income will be King or Queen.

The winner will receive a savings bond and the runners-up will get trophies. All entrants will receive a gift.

Sponsored by the Marietta Recreation Association, the Children's Fair will be held in Memorial Park. The King and Queen will be crowned at 1:00 PM.
