Free films

can be booked now

United Telephone's Free Film Library is now accepting bookings for the '79-80 season. A busy season is expected this year. Last year more than 3700 showings to 150,000 viewers were booked.

There are 50 films in United Tel's library. They will be scheduled on a first-come, first-served basis. Film catalogues are available at United Tel offices.

The films, which were produced by groups as diverse as Walt Disney Productions and the National Geographic Society, have a wide range of subject matter.
