

Farm Women Learn about Safety

State trooper Romaine Engle of the Lancaster Barracks was the guest speaker for the last meeting of Farm Women #8 at the Marietta Community House.

A safety education officer, trooper Engle spoke on women's safety. Her talk was entitled, "Lady Beware."

Trooper Engle talked about the growing number of assaults on women in this area, and gave practical suggestions on how to avoid or fight off an assault. A film, "Nobody's Victim," was shown.

25 members were present for the roll call, and one guest attended. Phyllis Endslow led the devotional thinking period by reading several poems.

President Mrs. Warren Heisey conducted the business session. The Farm Women decided to help the Lancaster Association for the Blind for its current project.

Dish cloths are being sold by the group now to raise funds.

Pauline Miller and Anna Wolgemuth have returned home from the hospital.

Hostesses for this meeting were Ruth Drager, Hettie Ginder, Phyllis Endslow, and Isabell Endslow. The May meeting date will be announced by the telephone squad.

Joycee-ettes see a skit

The Mount Joy Joycee-ettes saw a skit called "All the Caterpillars You Want" at their last meeting. It was performed for them by the Lancaster Family and Children's Service. It portrayed parent-child relationships.

The Joycee-ettes' Craft Day/Bazaar turned out to be a huge success. A total of 299 craft items were entered. The Joycee-ettes hope that the people who entered their crafts, and the community, enjoyed this project.

The Easter egg hunt was held at the Borough Park. The Easter Bunny paid a surprise visit and passed out colored eggs.

Tickets are now on sale for the Memorial Day Chicken Bar-B-Q, to be held on the same day as the parade: May 26th. It will last from 3:00 to 6:00 PM, and will be at the Lions Club building parking lot (next to the pool). For tickets, call chairwoman Sandy Spayd at 653-2216, or any other Joycee-ette.

The Joycee-ettes are also working on a float for the Memorial Day parade. The chairwomen are Nancy Nestleroth and and Connie Ginder.

The 75-Plus Banquet is planned for June 14th at Hostetter's. More information about this event will be announced at a later date. Chairwomen for the 75-Plus Banquet are Sharon Funk and Cheryl Hallgren.

The newly-elected board members will be the guests for a dinner prepared by the former board members at the home of Kathy Bower, May 1st.

Sico employees' banquet to be held

The Sico Company will host its 32nd annual employees' banquet on May 4th at Historic Strasburg. Service awards will be presented to those with 10, 15, 20, 25 and 30 years' service. Watches will be given to those with 25 years' service.

President Robert McGinley and board member Franlin Eichler will make the awards.

Food sale

A food sale, sponsored by the Episcopal Women of St. John's Church, Marietta, will be held on Saturday, May 5th, from 9:00 to 12:00 AM.

Baked goods, salads, home made candy, cakes and cookies will be offered for sale. Bring your own containers.

Advance orders may be placed with Mary Portner or Dotty Red.

Scott Kling wins Arrow of Light award

Scott Kling, a member of Cub Pack 263 of Mount Joy, won the Arrow of Light award at a recent scout meeting.

Kling, a member of Den 3, also won his Webelos badge and engineer merit badge.

Other members of Den 3 who got awards are Denny Hershey (artist, athlete, engineer, sportsman and traveler badges), Gregg Pennington (artist and scientist badges), and Mark Rosenberry (aquanaut badge).

These boys in Den 2 won badges: Scott Dillow (bear badge and Webelos colors); and Billy Garber (gold arrow).

In Den 1, awards were made to: David Long (bear, gold arrow); George Marley (2 silver arrows); Barry Funk (wolf, gold arrow, and 2 silver arrows); Todd Lovinger (gold arrow); Chris Ream (wolf and gold arrow); and Chris Wilson (gold arrow).

Five boys were taken into the scouts by Jim Ruhl, Scout Master of Troop 63. They were Scott Kling, Troy Drohan, Craig Johnson, Mark Rosenberry, and Todd Kirkpatrick.

Two boys—Mike Long and Pete Rose—were inducted into Cub Pack 263 by Cubmaster Phil Kling. Mike and Pete got bobcat pins, which must be worn upside down until a boy had done three good deeds for his mother.
