

Mother/daughter banquet

Mrs. Ralph Layman, an elementary teacher in the Solanco School District, was guest speaker for the mother and daughter banquet of the First United Methodist Church, Marietta, Thursday.

"The Ages of Woman" was Mrs. Layman's topic. She discussed the various stages through which females progress during their lifetimes.

The group participated in a sing-a-long. Special guest was Mrs. Earl Carver.

Prizes were awarded to Missy Wetzel, whose birthday was closest to the banquet date; Mrs. Layman, who was the first person to arrive at the event; and to Mary Barth, winner of an elimination contest.

Mrs. Richard Smedley and Mrs. Don Miller were co-chairwomen for the arrangements. They were assisted by Mrs. Don Pickle, Kathy Miller and Naomi A. Rutherford.

Beahm girls compete for May Queen title
