Obituaries

Merle Patterson

Merle Patterson, 54, 130 Elenora Drive, Maytown, died in the Osteopathic Hospital, Harrisburg, after a lengthy illness.

The husband of Virginia A. Abel Patterson, he was born in Clearfield County, a son of the Late James and Jenny Patterson.

He resided in Maytown the past six years, and prior to that lived in Middletown for 21 years. He was a tow motor mechanic at the ceiling plant, Armstrong Cork Co., Marietta.

He attended the Congregational Bible Church, Marietta, and was a member of American Legion Post 185, Mount Joy. A veteran of World War II, he served with the field artillery of the U.S. Army.

In addition to his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Cindy L., wife of Michael McCarty, Columbia, and a son, Ronnie M. Patterson, Maytown. One grandchild also survives, along with three sisters and two brothers: B.S. Patterson, James Patterson, Grace Webb, and Virginia, wife of James E. Weaver, all of Lancaster; and Thelma, wife of Norman Beatty, Akron.

Mary Clepper Loucks

Mary Clepper Loucks, 91, a resident of Masonic Homes, died in the Masonic Health Care Center after an illness of one year. She formerly resided at 226 High Lawn Ave., Elizabethtown.

Mrs. Loucks was born in Maytown, daughter of the late Albert B. and Clara Graybill Clepper, and was the widow of North S. Loucks, who died in 1973.

She was a life member of St. John's Lutheran Church, Maytown, and was church organist for 40 years.

She is survived by one daughter, Janice, wife of Gerald R. Schuldt, Elizabethtown.

Warren W. Heisey

Warren W. Heisey, 74, 107 Poplar St., Mount Joy, died at the W.I. Beahm Junior High School, Mount Joy, of an apparent heart attack.

He was the husband of Kathryn Rettew Heisey. Born in Rapho Township he was the son of the late Aaron H. and Fanny Wolgemuth Heisey.

He retired in 1970 as a foreman for the R-M Friction Materials Co., in Manheim. He was employed part-time by the Donegal School District.

He was a member of Cross Roads Brethren in Christ Church, Mount Joy, where he was a trustee, a member of the Mount Joy Historical Society, and the 25 Year Club of Raybestos Manhattan.

He celebrated his 50th wedding anniversary in June, 1977.

He is survived by his wife, and one son, W. Pernel Heisey, Mount Joy.

Albert L. Kraft

Albert L. Kraft, 82, Marietta RD#1, died after a lengthy illness.

The husband of Ethel Schlotthauer Kraft, Columbia, he was born in Klinesville, a son of the late John and Elizabeth Bongart Kraft. He was a retired civil service employe of Mechanicsburg Naval Depot.

A member of the Lutheran faith, he was a U.S. Army veteran of World War I, and a life member of American Legion Post 372, Columbia. He was also a member of the Federal Retirees Assn. and Rapid City, S.D., Lodge 25, F&AM.

He is survived by his widow and two sons, Chalmer L., Lancaster, and Albert E., Columbia; three grandchildren and four great-grandchildren. He is the last of his immediate family.
