Xenophiles

Last week the DHS languages department held their annual Xenophile Banquet [from the Greek, "love of strangers"]. Many Xenophilic students attended, as well as the language faculty and Mr. Hallgren.

"Roman" priest—Roman Catholic, apparently. Jeff's mustaches, which are fake, won him one of the six free lunches given these people.

These students in the lower photo were named to the Hispanic Honor Society: Karen Barnhart, Lu Ann Brenneman, Susan Gebhart, Tracee Gotwalt, Phil Landis, and Tim Milovich.

The banquet was held at Trinity Lutheran Church in Mount Joy.

Do you have a spare room in your house? A college-age Christian girl would like to rent 1 room for the summer. No cooking facilities necessary. Please call 426-1212.
