Marietta Borough Council

Marietta Boro Council approved at its Tuesday night session, the proposed plans for the Union Meeting House. Presented by Gene Aeachey, a representative of deVitry, Gilbert and Bradley, architects for the project, the plans include rehabilitation of the Union Meeting House, specifications, working drawings, site plan showing improvements, floor plans for first and second stories, details of windows and which ones will be replaced.

$103,000 has been allocated by the Lancaster County Redevelopment Authority which will also approve the plans of the project. The Marietta Restoration Associates as well as the Federal Government is expected to approve the project.

Five dead trees will be removed from Memorial Park and 9 mercury globes will be replaced in the nite lights. Existing trees will be mulched and wires for protection from mowers placed around them.

Parking on the West side only of Clay Street signs will be installed and no parking signs will be placed on Hazel Avenue in that area.

Marietta Boro's liquid fuel tax allocation of $2785 will be forwarded upon completion of work in that amount. The monies will be used in general maintenance of streets, cleaning streets, mowing grass, etc.

A projected plan for street repairs is in the process of being formulated with Mulberry Street earmarked as the first project this season; additional streets, which may not be in rotation are: Gay-Fairview to Longenecker; Biddle-Market to Essex; South Waterford Ave; and possibly Pine Street. A committee of Dave White, Jay Roberts and John Reuter will investigate the possibility of a Federal grant to develop Front Street area.

Reinspections have begun on rental units council was informed and only a few landlords have not complied to requirements. A $10 fee is charged to lift a one years permit on rental units.

A CETA worker has been approved to assist in the Police Department. The second cruiser will be placed in action when two officers are on duty.

Mayor J.R. Flanagan expressed his gratitude to those Front Street residents who mow grass opposite their homes.

East Donegal Supervisors

E. Donegal Township Supervisors, at its Thursday night session, approved the planning commissions recommendation to rezone 72½ acres or a portion of the Harold Frey farm from residential-1 to Agriculture. The land borders Coffee Goss Road. A public hearing will be scheduled as a routine procedure prior to the final act.

John Hiestand, representing the Maytown Water

Authority, read a letter he prepared to apply for a state grant for funds to obtain a test well on the Frank Singer property for expanding the local water supply. The Supervisors signed the application.

The Supervisors, John H. Brubaker, President; Lloyd H. Fuhrman, Secretary and Road Supervisor; and Harold Drager have purchased a tree, planted in the Rock Point Park in memory of the late James Johnson who served as a member of the township Board for 35 years. Johnson died in '77 at age 69.

In recalling his dedication Johnson carried for his community, Fuhrman stated "he contributed in a large way to make this community a better place to live." He was always interested in the welfare and financial status of East Donegal Municipalities and Maytown.

The ambulance was used on 22 calls during the month of April and 65 total runs for the 1st quarter of '79. The Maytown Fire Co. responded to 10 emergency fire calls.

Members of the Park Commission expressed gratitude to the Supervisors for purchasing 10 trees for the Rock Point Park.
