

Career Talk Day at Beahm Junior High

Last Thursday Beahm Junior High School held its first Career Talk Day. Community People from 14 different occupations came to tell the kids about their work.

A wide range of jobs was represented to the students. Below is a list of those who came:

Dale Arnold auto repair
 Dennis Fackler banking
 Donna Wetzel beautician
 Louis Stehman State Police officer
 William Sell surveying

Dr. Keith Stewart
 Dr. Richard Charles
 Patricia McKee
 Joyce Embley
 Marilyn Etsell

medical professions
 Rev. Roger Colvin minister

Maurice photography
 Nancy and Nick Bromer publishing

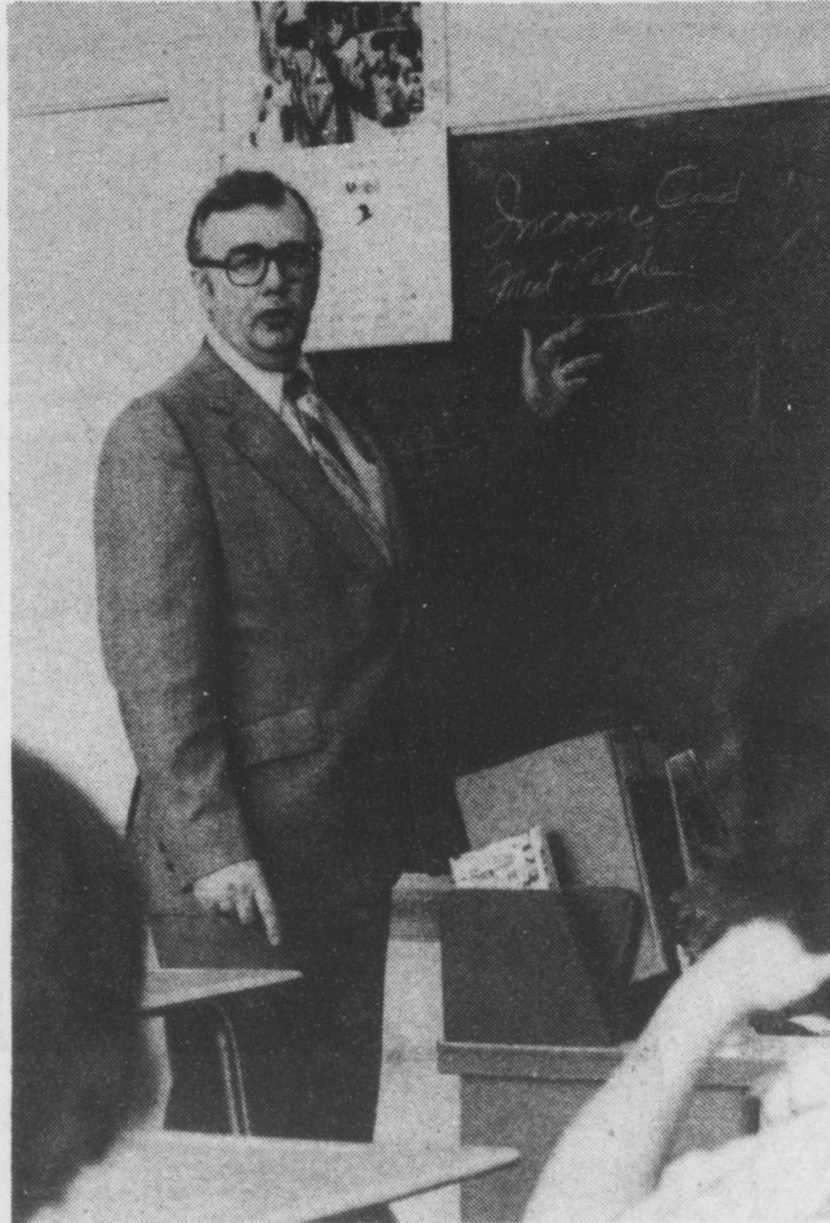

Harold Keller realtor
 Trooper Romaine Engle
 State Police officer
 William Sell surveying

Brenda Greiner welding co. representative
 Dale Arnold not only talked about auto repair—he also showed a film that is used as a reference by servicemen. Mr. Arnold, who is president of the Donegal School Board, drew the largest number of kids—54.

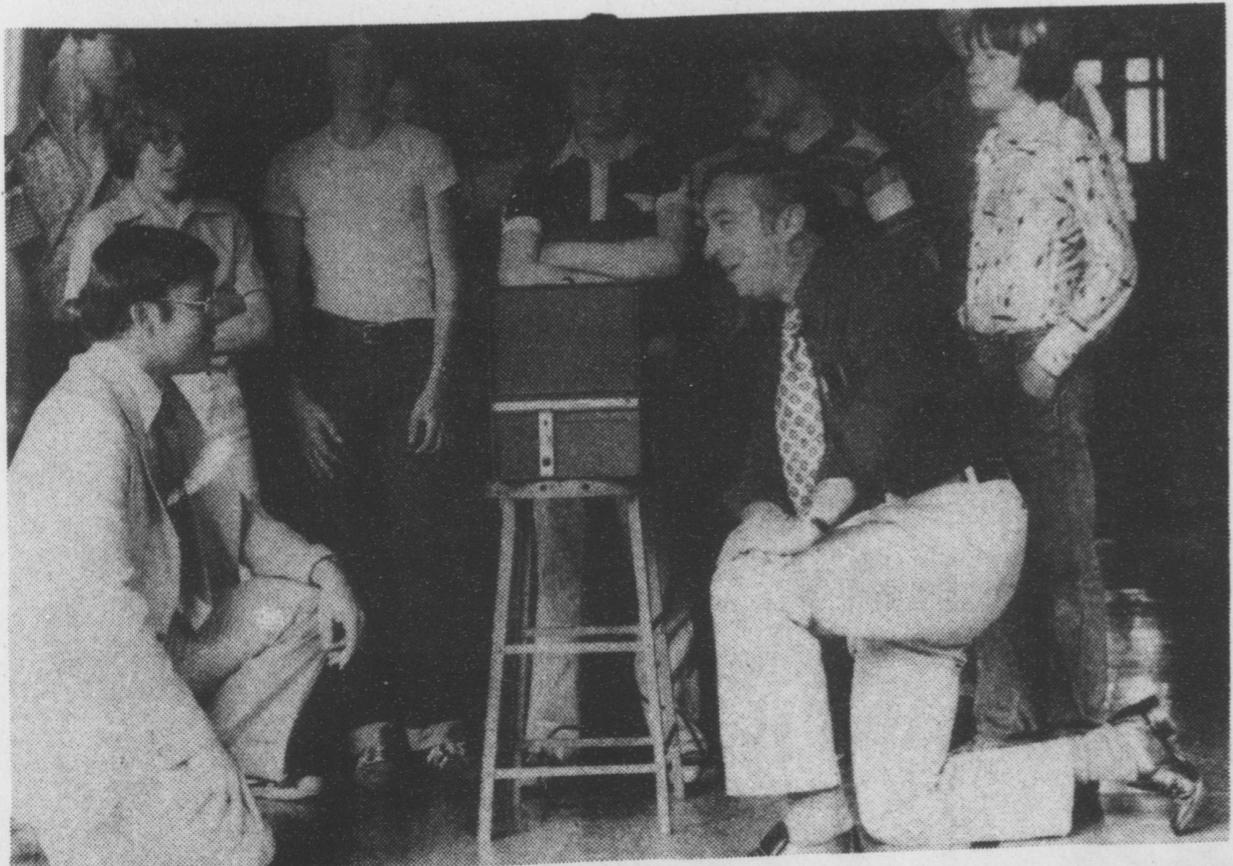

The career talks lasted one period each, and ran for two consecutive periods. Thus each Beahm student got to hear two talks by two or more people.

New regulations

New federal regulations require that persons serving on ESEA Title I Parent Advisory Councils be elected to membership. To comply with the regulations, a formal election of members to the district council will be held on Monday, May 21 at 7:00 PM at the Riverview Elementary School in the Large Group Instruction Room. If you are a parent of a child ages 5-21 and are a resident of the Donegal School District, come out and vote on May 21st.

The majority of district council members must be parents of students who are in the Title I reading improvement program. Other members may include parents of eligible children not currently participating in the program, residents of the district, and teachers. If you would like to be considered for membership or would like to hold an office please contact the DONEGAL SCHOOL DISTRICT, Box 297, Mount Joy, PA. 17552, Attention: Linda Boozer.

The scorchers are coming.
