Zion UCC officers honored

Special recognition was given to church officers of Zion United Church of Christ, Marietta, on Appreciation Sunday (May 20th).

Honored were secretary-treasurer Mrs. John Goodling, Jr., and treasurer Don Simmons.

Past officers in the same offices were also honored.

Each received a vase containing a rose. All officials received monetary gifts from the congregation.

Past officials are Anne Sipe, John Goodling, Sr., Mrs. Laura Kugle, and Mrs. Jack Mooney.

Pat Kunkle and Emily Buchanan served on the recognition committee.

Todd returns to Donegal Presbyterian

Dr. Richard A. Todd, former pastor of Mount Joy and Donegal Presbyterian Churches, will be returning to his first pastorate at Mount Joy on Sunday, June 3rd, to preach at the 11:00 AM worship service. Dr. Todd is presently the Senior Minister of the Walnut Creek Presbyterian Church of Walnut Creek, California, a church of approximately 3,000 members. Prior to this he was pastor of the Memorial Park Community Presbyterian Church of Allison Park, Pennsylvania.

A reception for Dr. Todd will be held immediately following the service in the Sunday School rooms, and all interested are cordially invited to attend.

"Witness to Freedom"

As part of the 250th anniversary celebration of Lancaster County, Donegal Presbyterian Church will present a historical drama, "Witness to Freedom," in the church grove Sunday, May 27, at 3 PM.

The presentation is in seven scenes, with costumes, songs and live music, and is free to the public. Frederick Robinson, founder of the Lancaster Opera Workshop, is directing the production, in which all the actors are members of the Donegal Church. Seating will be provided in the oak grove, but spectators are invited to bring their own deck chairs if desired.

The outdoor drama includes a salute to the founding of Lancaster Co. in 1729, the origin of the church in 1721, the Witness Tree pledge of 1777, and other events. Michael McKee of Landisville will play the Scottish bagpipes, and there will be a string trio consisting of John Hamilton, violin; Kathy Gates, viola; and Stefan A. Ochs, cello.

The historic church is on Donegal Springs Road, 3 miles west of Mount Joy. Rain date for the drama is June 3.
