School board hears complaint

Two irate parents asked for a hearing in regard to discipline taken against their daughter at the last Donegal School Board meeting.

Samuel and Sue B. Heineman, whose daughter is a student at Beahm junior high, spoke up at the end of the meeting (the usual time for citizens to talk to the Board), after sitting patiently for about two hours. Most of the Board members had looked up when the Heinemans walked in at the start of the meeting.

Mr. Heineman spoke to Board president Arnold. He asked if students have the right to defend themselves; said that his daughter was unjustly accused, and stated that the action taken against her was uncalled for. He also implied that the Beahm administration is out to get his daughter in more trouble as a result of her protesting her innocence.

"I won't have my child persecuted," Heineman said.

Mr. Arnold assured him that she would not be.

"I just wanted that to be on the record," Mr. Heineman replied.

Mr. Arnold said that the Board meeting was not the place to pursue the matter, and promised Mr. Heineman a committee hearing.

Both parents spoke to the Times after the meeting. They explained the situation but asked that refrain from printing any details pending possible legal action. Mr. Heineman has retained an attorney.

Both felt that the administration had dealt arbitrarily with their daughter.

Earlier in the meeting, the new discipline code was enacted without discussion.

The vote on the new code had been postponed at the last meeting because the response of the Donegal High student council had not been received. Mr. Duke had received the response in time for this meeting, however. He read portions of it to the Board.

The DHS council endorsed the new discipline code, but expressed some reservations about the severity of punishments allowed for minor infractions.

The vote was unanimous.

The proposed budget for the next fiscal year was approved. This preliminary budget is subject to review and comment from the public.

The budget totals $4,738,985.

Basketball coach Emil Swift was replaced by William G. Strausbaugh as math teacher. Mr. Robert Freund will replace Swift as coach. (He will also replace Mr. Day as guidance counselor—Mr. Day is retiring.)

Tom Knorr was granted a one-year leave of absence from athletic training to study at Millersville State and become a certified trainer. He will continue on as a physical education teacher.

Permission was given for the district elementary band to go to Connecticut on June 7 and 8.

Baccalaureate is planned for June 3rd at 7:45. No tickets will be needed.

Groff and White were appointed district auditors.

Shirk, Reist and Buckwalter will be the district solicitors.

Dale Arnold spoke again in favor of incorporating I.U. 13's joint authority. The resolution in favor passed.

The timing lights around the tennis courts aren't installed yet.

An objection was raised by Mary Frances Cassel, who lives near SICO Park, against the picnic tables being moved closer to the homes in the area. The Board agreed to move them back.

PUFA plans Command Performance

The second annual "Command Performance," sponsored by (People United for the Arts (PUFA) will be held at Donegal High on Saturday, June 2nd, at 8:00 PM. Tickets will cost $3.50 at the door, $2.50 in advance.

The show will include a variety of new acts by Donegal teachers and students, as well as alumni.
