MRS. JAMES HILT

Mrs. Beulah L. Hilt, 81, Mount Joy, died at the Duke Convalescent Residence Inc. after a lengthy illness.

Born in Florin, she was a daughter of the late Jacob G. and Clara Givens Loraw, and the widow of James L. Hilt, who died in 1948.

She was a lifetime resident of the Florin and Mount Joy areas.

Mrs. Hilt was a member of Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, the Good Cheer Sunday School class of the church and a charter member of the Women's Society of Christian Service. She was an active member of the auxiliary of American Legion Post 185, Mount Joy, and founded the first Girl Scout Troop in Mount Joy in the 1920s.

She had been employed at Bachman Chocolate Co., Mount Joy, and later worked as a cook at the former Aunt Sally's Kitchen, the former Bennett's Restaurant, both of Mount Joy, and the Lancaster County Farm Restaurant, Rheims.

Survivors include two sons and one daughter: James L. and Warren L., both of Mount Joy; and Mrs. Lorraine B. Caswell, Manheim; five grandchildren, five great-grandchildren; a sister, Mrs. Lolita L. Gehman, Mount Joy.

MRS. EDWIN T. DRALLE

Mrs. Bonnie B. Dralle, 87, of 114 E. Market St., Marietta, died at Heatherbank Convalescent Center, Columbia.

She was the widow of Edwin T. Dralle. Born in Mt. Carmel, Ill., she was a daughter of the late Dr. Edgar and Della Young Biddle.

She is survived by one son, Hovey B. Gleason, Marietta, with whom she resided; one granddaughter, and one great-grandson.

Congregational Bible Church to hold summer camp for youth

The Congregational Bible Church in Marietta is sponsoring two weeks of summer camp. Both camps are open to any area resident seriously interested in growing spiritually.

The Junior Week (ages 9-12) will be held at Camp Tel Hai from July 9-14. The program features Mim Mylin as the morning Bible teacher, Steve Brubaker as ventriloquist. Mim Kauffman as Story Teller, Cheryl Fulmer as Song Leader and two special films: "Home Run for Rusty" and "Not With a Sword." Recreational activities include horse-back riding, swimming, baseball, boating, crafts, chariot races, and obstacle course, and many more.

The Teen Week (ages 13-16) will be held at YFC's Circle T Camp from July 30-Aug. 4. Gary Newton (Pastor of Youth and Christian Education) will be teaching from the Bible concerning "Living Under Christ's Lordship" each morning. The evening programs will feature Reverend James Reapsome (Pastor of the Congregational Bible Church). Ken Jay Byle (Bible Study Leader in Donegal High School), Galen Hershey (Youth Counselor at Messiah Children's Home), Ian Crichton (American Missionary Fellowship), Cheryl Fulmer for special music, and the film "Where Eagles Fly." Recreational activities include swimming, boating, riflery, canoeing, an obstacle course, chariot races, hiking and many more.

The cost of both weeks of camp is $30.00. Contact Gary Newton, Camp Director, for a registration form at 426-2514, or 426-1345.

Welcome Wagon visits Schock Home

The members of the Mount Joy Welcome Wagon gave a "Tea" for the ladies of the Schock Home.

The tea was held in the lovely and spacious living room. Mrs. Linda Reischer played many beautiful songs on the grand piano during the affair. Refreshments were served to the residents by Welcome Wagon members. A very delicious marble cake decorated with pansies, punch and mints were enjoyed by all. The pink and green table decorations complimented the vase of long stemmed red roses.

After refreshments, Mrs. Ethel Huss and Mrs. Ruth Moore presented each resident with a red rose. Ladies receiving roses were: Mrs. McConkey, Miss Beyer, Mrs. Whitton, Miss Seaman, Mrs. Pfaltzgraf, Mrs. Mead, Mrs. Hahn, Mrs. Wilson, Miss McDowell, Mrs. McGuinnis, Mrs. Brown, Miss Galt, Mrs.

Hayles, Mrs. Anderson, Mrs. Thomson, Mrs. Waugaman and Mrs. Mary Dunsmore, director of Schock Home.

A good time of visiting was had by all present. Our club members visit the ladies twice each month during the year. Crafts are also made.

The tea was under the direction of 1978-1979 Community Service Chairman Joyce Bukowski and Co-chairman Pat Snow.
