Obituary

RICHARD L. PARSONS
 Richard L. Parsons, 61, formerly of Mount Joy, died last week at Wilkes-Barre Veterans Medical Center after an illness of six months.

He was the widower of Myrtle Husler Parsons, who died in 1970.
 He was retired from the former Ray-Mar Corporation in Manheim.

A veteran of World War Two, Parsons was a charter member of the Mount Joy VFW Post 5752.
 He was born in Mount Joy, a son of Blanch Bailey Parsons of Mount Joy and the late Richard T. Parsons. Surviving him, besides his mother, are two sons, Richard L., Jr., of Mount Joy, and James L. of Middletown; and two grandchildren.

Six Donegal High students win Vo-Tech awards

Six Donegal High students at the Mount Joy Vo-Tech school were among the 24 at the Vo-Tech who received awards from local businesses at the annual awards day ceremony. They are: Kevin Herr, who received a multimeter for outstanding appliance repair from McCombs Supply Co., Inc.;

Walter Buckius, $100 savings bond, engraved printer's glass and certificate as outstanding graphic arts student, from the Graphic Arts Industries of Lancaster County;

Lowell Heisey, $25 and an engraved plate from the American Welding Society, and a gift certificate from the Welding Craft Committee;

Vincent Mummau, a $25 gift certificate from Harold E. Smith Co. as outstanding machine shop student. He also got a $50 bond and engraved mantle clock from Sperry-Rand/New Holland Machine Division;

Larry Musser, certificate and medal from DeKalb Agricultural Research, Inc., for agricultural proficiency; and Clyde Bitner, a $25 savings bond for most significant progress in welding, from Heil Co.

Business and Professional Women meet

The Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club heard songs by Andante and the results of a citizenship poll at Seiler Elementary School at their last meeting.

Diane Rice, chairwoman of the Civic Participation Committee, reported on the sometimes humorous answers that Seiler students had given when asked what a good citizen is. Miss Rice conducted the poll herself.

Andante (composed of the Zimmermann sisters) sang a number of selections. Their appearance also was arranged by the Civic Participation Committee.

Mrs. Pat Enos conducted the business session in the absence of the president. The various committees presented the annual reports.

77 club members took part in the local cancer drive.

It was announced that the Board of Directors will meet at the home of the president on June 11th at 7:30 PM.

Patricia Shearer and Diane Rice are delegates to the state convention.

Carol Lambert is chairing the annual production at the Fulton, sponsored by District 7, on August 14th.

Officers will be installed on the 25th at Hostetter's.

Farm Women hear about welfare fraud

Mrs. Dorothy Forney, administrative assistant to Senator Richard Snyder, was the featured speaker at the May meeting of Farm Women #8, held at the home of Mrs. Helen Wivell, RD1 Columbia.

Mrs. Forney spoke on welfare fraud and the steps being taken to stop it.

Mrs. Kathryn Erb presided over the business session and Mrs. Alice Myers talked about friendship. The roll call response was on green thumbs.

The treasurer's report, in the absence of treasurer Elizabeth Shuman, was read by Grace Bixler. Ruth Musser read the correspondence and a report on the spring rally at E-town College. 1300 Farm Women attended that rally.

At the request of International 4-H Youth Exchange, the Farm Women will sponsor a trip to Japan by Christine Erb. They contributed $50. Miss Erb will report on her experiences when she returns.

Co-hostesses were Mrs. Evelyn Russell, Miss Ruth Eby, Mrs. Alice Myers and Mrs. Wivell.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Lewis Bixler on June 16th, when Edwin Myers will speak on "Streams of Lancaster County."

Maytown Park meeting

The Park Commissioners of Maytown have scheduled a meeting on June 6 at 7:30 PM at the East Donegal Township Municipal Building.

Any organization or parties interested in our parks are invited to attend this meeting.
