CBC youth organize to help needy

This summer the Congregational Bible Church will organize a group of energetic youths in Marietta, from the ages of 12 to 18, to help needy individuals in Marietta on a voluntary basis. This program is part of the Marietta Youth Ministry under the leadership of Gary Newton and five full-time young adult counselors.

Other activities involved in the summer program are two weeks of vacation Bible School, two weeks of camp, day camp, backpacking trips, canoeing trips, bike hikes, Bible studies and other forms of recreation. The service projects are designed to provide a balance in the program by not only "giving to the youth" but training them to give unselfishly to others.

If you know of any elderly, handicapped or needy individual who needs help mowing grass, painting, pulling weeds, cleaning yards, cleaning house, washing windows, etc. —contact Gary Newton. Any youth interested in doing something constructive this summer is also encouraged to contact Gary at 426-2514 or 426-1345.

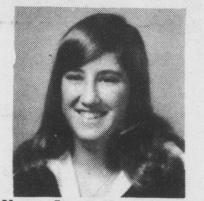

Larry Wilkinson: Larry is 26 years old, a welder by trade and an outdoorsman by nature. This year he has studied part-time at LBC and has led the Thursday night Youth Center. This will be his second summer as a counselor with the Congregational Bible Church.

Don Lamb: Don is 18, a graduate of E-town High School. He is considering art school in the fall. This past year Don has helped to lead the Wednesday Youth Group (junior high). This will be Don's second year as a counselor.

Nancy Long: Nancy is 22 years old, finishing her fourth year at LBC. She has worked this year at the Saturday nigh Youth Center and has experience in horseback riding, backpacking and canoeing.

Thomas H. Asplin honored by Naval Reserve

Thomas H. Asplin, teacher of industrial arts (metals), at Donegal High School, has been selected as Naval Enlisted Reservist of the Year for the Fourth Naval District, which includes New Jersey, New York, Maryland, and parts of Virginia, in addition to Pennsylvania. Asplin will now be considered for nationwide honors.

He won this recognition for his outstanding success in recruiting young men for the Navy.

Letters of recommendation written by fellow Thomas H. Asplin teachers John Day, John W.W. Loose, and Mimi Peraro helped Asplin to win the award.

During the summers he works as a naval recruiter stationed in Lancaster and visits every high school in the county.

Asplin believes wholeheartedly in the worthwhileness of the training offered by the Navy.

Asplin, who holds a master's degree from Millersville State College, lives in Lancaster with his wife. Carol and daughters Jennie and Julie.
