DHS underclassmen get awards

Last Thursday morning a number of underclassmen at D.H.S. were given awards for their achievements.

Certificates were awarded to the following students for scoring above the 90th percentile in National Education achievement tests: Joyce Darkey, Jeff Duke, Sue Gephart, Cheryl Grimm, Beth Hall, Tim Milovich, Phil Spickler.

The following students will be attending leadership camps:

Sue Gillham will go to the Keystone Leaders Camp and is being sponsored by the Mount Joy Post 185 of the American Legion;

Connie Frey and Julie Endslo will attend a 3-day Rotary Leaders camp, sponsored by the Mount Joy Rotary Club;

Terry Berg will spend two days at Penn State where he will compete for a full tuition scholarship;

Cindy Anspach will attend a forestry camp at Penn State. (See last week's Susquehanna Times.)

These 11th grade boys will represent DHS at leadership programs this summer:

Mitch Johnson and Dave Eichler, sponsored by the Mount Joy Rotary, will attend a Rotary Youth Leaders camp.; Alan Bundy and Phil Landis will attend Keystone Boys State, sponsored by the Mount Joy American Legion, Post 185; Gordon Brightbill and Scott Gerberich will attend State Police Youth Week, sponsored by the Mount Joy Legion;

The above students were selected by the faculty and administration for their potential and performance.

These juniors were elected to the National Honor
