

Ever have a radiator hose
"blow" half-way to the shore!
Frustrating, ain't it!?!
Why be careless??

Let us hose you
before you take that trip!

Mrs. William A. Landis

Odessa Mull marries William Landis

The marriage of Odessa C. Mull to William A. Landis took place in the Congregational Bible Church near Marietta on Saturday, June 16th, at 10:30 AM. The Rev. John S. Hiestand officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Donegal High School and the Junior College of Medical Arts. She is employed by Dr. William B. Landis, M.D., the father of the groom.

The groom is a graduate of Donegal High School and the Florida Institute of Technology. He plans to attend the University of South Florida College of Medicine.

Mrs. Timothy Forry, sister of the bride, was the matron of honor. Bridesmaid was Mrs. David Martin, sister of the bride. Miss Sharon Martin, neice of the bride, was the junior bridesmaid. Miss Amy Martin, also a neice of the bride, was the flower girl.

Phillip Landis was the best man for his brother. Groomsmen were James Landis, brother of the groom, and Wayne Hoffman. Scott Forry and Michael Martin were the ring bearers. Both are nephews of the bride.

Ushers were Timothy Forry, brother-in-law of the bride, and David Martin, also a brother-in-law of the bride. Miss Barbara Landis, sister of the groom, was the registrar, and Mrs. Robert Richm was the gift receiver.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride wore a gown of Silesta knit featuring a sheer yoke with accents of silk Venise lace. The long slender sleeves were adorned with insets of English net and motifs of silk Venise lace. The A-line skirt fell from a blousen waistline and flowed into a full chapel train, edged in silk Venise lace.

The walking length mantilla was trimmed with matching silk Venise lace and was gathered into a Juliette cap with matching silk lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of gardenias and stephanetis with mixed green foliage.

Mrs. Ralph Garber was the organist. Roy Aungst was the pianist. Soloist was Stephen Garber. The reception was held in Myer Hall at Elizabethtown College.

Following a wedding trip through the southern United States, the couple will reside in Tampa, Florida.

Nuke phones hooked up

All but two of the 70 nuclear power plants in the country have now gotten direct phone hook-ups to the NRC headquarters in Maryland. NRC technical personnel will be on hand 24 hours a day to answer the phones. The two nuke plants without phones have both been shut down for more than a year.

The installation of the phones was started after the TMI incident. Work has been finished a month ahead of schedule.
