Basketball camps honors players

The 5th annual Lancaster Area Basketball Camp was held June 11-15 at Donegal High School under the direction of Emil Swift.

The camp was divided into a boys' camp, from 9:00 AM to 3:00 PM, and a girls' camp from 4:00 PM to 10:00 PM, daily. All students in grades 5 through 12 from the Lancaster area were eligible to participate.

Throughout the week, guest coaches participated. Among those present were these boys' guest coaches: Greg Manning, star guard at the University of Maryland; Dick Dehart, head coach at Millersville State College; Mike Shaker, head coach at Messiah College; Ed McIlmoyle, 1977 Pennsylvania State Champion Coach of the Cocalico Eagles; Glenn Dobinson, head coach at Franklin and Marshall College; Mike Motto, starting guard at Messiah College; and Bob Freund, Donegal Junior Varsity coach.

The guest coaches for the girls' camp were: Sharon Sugar, Section III Championship Coach of the Hemp field team; Tina Mullouna, L-L League champion; Bill Earhart, coach of the Donegal girls' team; Emil Swift, coach of the Donegal boys' team; and Bob Freund.

In addition to the various coaches, a number of guest speakers attended the camp. They included: John Clark, former coach at St. Francis College and then head coach for the Pittsburgh Pipers of the ABA; John Slider, considered the world's greatest shooting instructor; Charlie McLalough, executive director of the PIAA; and Tick Hurst, PIAA official.

60 boys and 40 girls attended this summer's camp.

Adoptive parents picnic

The Adoptive Families of Lancaster County are planning a picnic on Sunday, July 1st at the Manhiem Township Community Park in Neffsville. The picnic will be at pavilion #2 from 2:00 to 6:00 PM.

The theme of this year's picnic is "Happiness is Adoption." The various Charles Shulz characters will decorate the pavilion, and the adults will enjoy fellowship with others who have experienced the "happiness" of having their families increased by adoption.

A carnival-like atmosphere, for children of all ages, will prevail. There will be a variety of games, toys and prizes for everyone, and an opportunity to have your face painted to resemble a clown, an Indian, a gypsy, or the "Hulk."

Each child will also receive a packet of peanut butter playdough in order to make a creation and then have the additional fun of eating it.

The picnic is open to any family in Lancaster County that has been enriched through an adoption experience. For further information concerning the picnic, contact: Mrs. Harvey Frasch, 285-3542.
