

Michael Frank and Virginia Smith exchange vows

Virginia Smith marries Michael Frank

The marriage of Emily Virginia Smith and Michael Eugene Frank took place at 3:00 PM on Sunday, June 24th, at the home of Don Blackman and John Latham, 258 West Front Street, Marietta. The Rev. George McCredie officiated.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Emily V. Smith, 300 West Market Street, Hellam and the late H. Sherman Smith, Sr.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Frank of RD1 Mount Joy.

Tanya J. Rogers was the maid of honor. Jerry W. Martin was the best man.

About 60 guests attended the ceremony.

Given in marriage by John Latham, the bride wore a gown which was an adaptation of a turn-of-the-century afternoon dress, cream colored with a ruffled yoke neck, wrist-length fitted sleeves, and a full skirt with trim of eyelet lace.

The wedding cake was three tiers of white-on-white floral lace. It was decorated by Angie Mambu of Philadelphia. The buffet was planned and prepared by Ray Dockstedar of Washington, DC.

Immediately after the ceremony, the newly-weds took a short tour of Marietta in a 1910 Buick.

The bride is a graduate of the York County Day School, class of 1973. She is employed as dessert and pastry chef at the Railroad House, Front and Perry Streets, Marietta.

The groom is a graduate of Donegal High School. He is employed by R&R Metals of Elizabethtown as an electroplater.

After a wedding trip to Tilghman Island, Maryland, the couple will reside at 235 West Market Street, Marietta.
