“Exhausted Hens” are honored by Joyceettes

by Kathy Bower

At their meeting on June 19th members of the Mount Joy Joyceettes presented a special program to recognize “Exhausted Hens” Joanne Fry and Cheryl Hallgren, for their contributions to the Joyceettes and to the community.

Cheryll has been a member of the Joyceettes for ten years and has held the offices of director, vice-president, president and past president. She has chaired the cancer drive three times, the clubwomen's tea and the Woman of the Year Award three times and the Seventy-Five Plus Banquet three times. Cheryll has also served as general chairman of the 1974 bazaar, co-chairman of the Bicentennial Ball in 1976 and representative to the Bicentennial Committee.

Joanne has been a member of the Joyceettes for three years. During that time she served as Brownie chairman and membership chairman. She has assisted with the clubwomen's tea, chicken barbeque, Seventy-Five Plus Banquet, Sweetheart King and Queen, Woman of the Year award, Christmas meeting and winter social.

Following the program, which included both serious and funny reminiscences of Joanne's and Cheryl's years in the Joyceettes, President Patsy Hoffer presented an Exhausted Hen certificate and charm to Joanne. Cheryl received her charm and certificate at the April installation banquet.

Cooking Club

The Outdoor Cooking Club held its organizational meeting June 14, 1979 at Carolyn Newcomer's home.

The officers are: President—Jenny Mullins; Secretary—Loretta Stoltzfus; Treasurer—Teresa O'Donnell; Game Leader—Karen Wittel; News Reporter—

Jodi Bixler. We made Sloppy Joes, cole slaw and dressing, mock angel food cake and peanut butter shakes. It was fun. We all enjoyed making the food.

Farm Women see slides

Edwin Myers of Elizabethtown, an engineer with the Pennsylvania Department of Transportation, was the guest speaker for Society of Farm Women #8 at their regular monthly meeting held recently at the home of Mrs. Lewis Bixler, RD1 Marietta.

Myers showed slides of old mills, covered bridges, and streams of Lancaster County.

Mrs. Kathryn Erb presided over the meeting in the absence of the president. Mrs. Mary Sarver led the devotions.

Rose varieties were named in response to the roll call. (The peace rose seemed to be the group's favorite.)

Treasurer Elizabeth Shuman and Sunshine Committee woman Mrs. Nettie Ginder gave reports.

A breakfast meeting will be held at the next session, at Willow Valley Inn on July 21st at 9:30 AM. Those in need of transportation and drivers with unfilled cars may meet at the Mennonite Church in Mount Joy at 8:45 AM. Members are asked to bring gifts that can be used at Conestoga View when the Society visits there on August 3rd.

The county project this year will be aiding the Lancaster County Blind Association.

The picnic will be held at Lampeter Park. Everyone should bring a place setting and a covered dish. The picnic will take place on August 1st.

Members were invited to enter handicrafts made from recycled materials in the state competition. One article from each Society will be brought to the County Board meeting in September.

Hostesses for the June meeting were Mrs. Bixler and Mrs. Shuman. They were assisted by Mrs. Bixler's daughters, who were visiting, in the absence of co-hostesses Mrs. Lillian Eby, Mrs. Ethel Herr, and Mrs. Anna Wolgemuth.
