Mount Joy Business and Professional Women install new officers and new member

Mrs. John Fry was installed as president of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women's Club at the June meeting. Mrs. Christine Burkholder was inducted as a new member.

Other officers installed at the June meeting were Ada Thompson, 1st vice president; Gail Hoover, 2nd vice president; Pat Enos, corresponding secretary; Hazel Baker, recording secretary; and Mary Bookwalter, treasurer.

Mrs. Dorothy Wagner,

chairwoman of the membership committee (which arranged the program) introduced Joel Mumma and his mother Joyce, who played a clarinet duet.

Outgoing president Mrs. Yvonne Koser conducted the business session. The club voted to sponsor a candidate for the Miss Donegal Area Pageant and allocated $100 for convention expenses. A report from the state convention at Hershey was heard.

The Mount Joy club won a certificate for its attendance of 100 per cent and its contributions to the Foundation.

Patricia Shearer, Lillian Fry, Molly Hart, Diane Rice and Joyce Mumma presented convention reports.

Hazel Baker, Chris Graham, Elaine Richards, Carol Lambert, Ruth Singer and Thelma Way were awarded centerpieces for perfect attendance.

Mrs. Koser thanked the club members for assisting her in her term as president. She presented a gift to Micheline Wiley of Wrightsville, District 7 director, who had come to make the installations and induct the new member.

The July event will be a patio party with the telephone squad contacting members.

Lillian Fry presented the past presidents' pin to Yvonne Koser.
