The wedding is planned for August 18, 1979.

Donegal School Board
okays building repairs

The Donegal School Board OKed $10,000 of roof repairs for the DHS gym at their last meeting. The work will be done by J.M. Young & Sons, Inc.

Work is also needed at Riverview School. A bid for $2,950 worth of work on the heating and cooling system there was awarded to the Powers Co.

It was announced that next year's Pennsylvania School Subsidy will be $128,805. The budget was reopened in order to get this money into it.

The board gave the long-asked-for computer system purchase the go-ahead. The new DHS computers will cost $4000 or $5000.

Attendance officers were given a raise of $150. They now make $1,950.

The hourly rate for district intramural coaches was raised from $3.00 and hour to $3.75.

The metrification of the DHS track was decided upon. Bids will be advertised.

B. Titus Rutt won the district insurance policy contract. Policies will cost $8 for school time coverage and $25 for 24-hour coverage.

Mrs. Cheryl Billow was hired under a temporary contract as a 6th grade teacher at Grandview.

The resignation of Mrs. Patricia Bateman, Maytown School teacher, was accepted.

The sabbatical returns of Warren Rupp and Jane Prowell were approved. Mr. Rupp changed his return date from January 2 to September 4.
