your SNOOPY & WOODSTOCK Phone!

Take SNOOPY & WOODSTOCK home with you.

These fun-loving pals have teamed up to bring you or your family the happiest phone ever. It's not a toy, it's a full feature telephone. One that you'll enjoy using for many years to come. One that will spark conversations everywhere. . . in your family room, bedroom or den. Impress visitors in your home or office.

SNOOPY, in his natural white and black, holds the bright yellow headset . . . while sunny yellow WOODSTOCK stands faithfully by his side. Both characters are mounted on a red-top base with wood-grained sides.

You can choose either a U-TOUCH® push-button or a rotary dial.

Take SNOOP & WOODSTOCK home today from your United Telephone Phone Shop or Business Office.

Letters from the I

The Community House in Marietta was donated to the town by Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Hiestand in memory of their son, Benjamin, who was killed as a pilot in World War One.

Benjamin's brother, Fitzgerald Hiestand, lives in Marietta today.

Benjamin's and Fitzgerald's mother, Mrs. Henry S. Hiestand was born Bessie Fitzgerald, daughter of Captain Jenkins A. Fitzgerald, M.D., and Emily McCorkle Fitzgerald. Capt. Fitzgerald was an Army doctor who served with distinction during the Civil War, and afterward at various Army posts in the West.

Emily Fitzgerald wrote regular letters from the West to her mother, Elizabeth McCorkle, in Columbia, Pa. These letters were preserved by Bessie Hiestand and published in 1962. An account of these interesting letters is on this page.
