Mount Joy Leisure Club holds craft show and corn roast

The Mount Joy Leisure Club held a craft show and corn roast at their August meeting at Hostetter's.

Mrs. Eva Groff presided in the absence of the president and vice president. The invocation was offered by the Rev. Ezra Ranck. Ella Germer, remembrance chairwoman, reported 14 cards sent out this month.

Guests of the club were Roy Dough, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Brandt, Ralph Good, and Grace Hawn.

A moment of silence was observed in memory of Mrs. Ester Hockenberry.

Hobby items on display included circus elephants, salt and pepper shakers, a wind mill, marble chasers, pierced tin, and the flag and pewter collection of Mrs. Cloy Hoffer.

Among the tumblers she exhibited were sandwich glass, German bisque pressed berry pattern, Pittsburgh etched glass, Stiegel type glass, Mexican hand-blown, Mary Gregory, and Canphor.

Her pewter collection included oil lamps, plates, ice cream molds, and portigers. Mrs. Hoffer explained that the older type has more lead, while the modern has more tin. This makes the shine more durable.

The September 10th meeting will be held at 1:00. Greeters will be Mrs. Fackler and Elva Martin.

Ralph Watts can really catch the beetles

The following note and the accompanying photo were sent to us by Annette Watts, 212 No. Market Ave., Mount Joy. —Ed.

I thought that you and the readers would like to hear and see this. Ralph Watts bought a beetle trap. He caught a quart jar full on Saturday, also one on Sunday. Here is a snapshot of them.

They have really been eating our roses. We tried everything we knew but the traps really are doing the job.
