Marietta Lions Club gets quarter acre of land; contains sign; named 'Myrtle Mowrer Garden'

The title to approximately ¼ acre of land received from Milton Mowrer has been turned over to the Marietta Lion's Club. The tract is located on Routes 441 and 141 and is to be known as "Myrtle Mowrer Memorial Garden" in memory of the late Mrs. Mowrer, wife of Milton Mowrer.

The above announcement was made at the outdoor meeting of the Lion's Club.

Held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gilmartin, the event was labeled "Ladies Night." The dinner was prepared and served by Stanley's Cafe. Glen Garber presented music at the organ.

The tract of land has the Lion's billboard on it which invites the public to "Live, Work and Build in Marietta," and includes the Lion's International Emblem on it.

Storm sewers in Marietta being constructed; Fire Chief Geesey reports to council on pumper

STORM SEWERS

The reconstruction of storm sewers along Front Street in Marietta is moving ahead: a bid will probably be awarded at the October Borough Council meeting.

The reconstruction will involve cleaning sewers and replacing some others, which are too small to handle the runoff. Federal money will pay for the work.

Obituaries

MRS. MICHAEL HICKEY
Emily F. Hickey, 79, formerly of 675 Club Drive, Allentown, died at Cedarbrook, Allentown, after a long illness.

Born in Marietta, she was the daughter of the late Frank T. and Emily Paules.

She was the widow of George F. Bowers and Michael A. Hickey.

Surviving her are a daughter, Nancy, the wife of James Flowers of Allentown; three stepdaughters: Ruth Henry and Harriet Contractors will have to meet Redevelopment Authority standards.

PUMPER TRAINING

Fire Chief Ken Geesey reported to the Marietta Council that guidelines and an operating manual are being prepared for the new Pioneer Company pumper truck. Sam Zuch, Geesey said, is chairing the training committee.

Money from the sale of the old pumper will be used to fit an extra diesel fuel tank to the new pumper, he said.

Permission was granted for the new pumper to be exhibited in the E-town parade on the 17th, and the purchase of a nozzle and hydrant adapter were approved at a cost of $460. The money will be repaid to the borough by the fire company.

Geesey reported four fires in August, which caused $1200 damage.

STREET RECONSTRUCTION PLANNED

It was announced at the recent Marietta Council meeting that long range plans for street reconstruction in the borough are in the works. Curbs will be required along all repaired streets, Council said.
