Laura's interest in art is centered on sculpture and pottery right now, and she's hoping to enter some of her work in the Scholastic Arts competition. She has been a member of the dramatics club for the past two years, putting her talents to use making scenery and the like.

Laura's hobbies are guitar playing, horseback riding, selling Avon products (she doesn't think of this as work) and reading books. What does she read? "I don't stick to one topic. I read a lot of different books. I read all the time," she says.

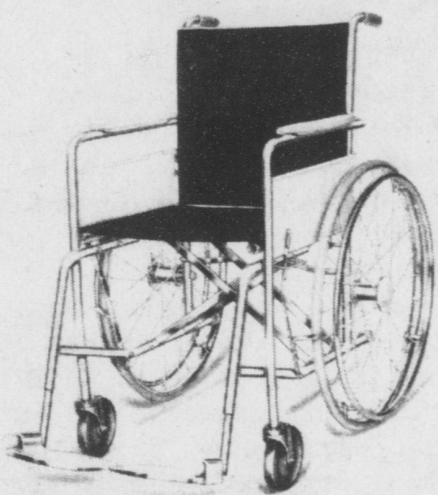

Previously employed by Groff's Farm, Laura now works at the Lincoln Restaurant as a waitress.

Her other activities at school have been with the track team and the rifle team.

Eventually, she says, she would like to be a politician, because she thinks it would be interesting. However, she's not active in politics now.
