Diane Krantz is editor of Susquehanna Times

Diane L. Krantz has been appointed editor of the Susquehanna Times.

For the past year Diane has been advertising manager of the Times, a post she will retain while also becoming editor.

She was graduated this past August from Millersville State College, with a B.A., cum laude in English and a minor in psychology. Diane worked an average of thirty hours every week while she attended Millersville, earning and paying all her expenses for her education. During her first two years at Millersville she worked as a salesperson at Kinney Shoes, East Towne Mall, Lancaster. Her last year at college she was ad manager of the Times.

By attending summer school and taking a full load of courses while also working, Diane was able to finish her college education in three years.

While working at Kinney Shoes, Diane conducted a marketing study which related parents' modes of child rearing to who made the buying decision—parent or child. The management of Kinney Shoes was very interested in Diane's findings.

Diane was graduated in June, 1976 from Lampeter-Strasburg High School. She was a member of the National Honor Society, class vice-president, layout editor for the yearbook, and a member of the hockey team.

Her chief non-professional interests are running, Western horseback riding, and reading. For seven years she owned her own horse, Beauty.

She is the daughter of Paul and Emma Krantz, R.D. 1, Strasburg, Pa. She has two younger sisters, Joan, a student at York Academy of Art, and Patti, 4.

Diane is a member of New Providence Mennonite Church.

Miss Krantz will be moving to Mount Joy at the end of this month.

Sr. League October 31

The regular meeting of the Marietta Senior League will be held on Monday afternoon, Oct. 31st, at 1:30.

They will hold the white elephant auction which was cancelled for the last meeting due to lack of members.

Each member is asked to bring one or two items for sale. Tickets for the October bus trip be on sale at this meeting.

There are still a few bus trip tickets available.
