Mount Joy B.P.W. goes back to school, sings nostalgic songs

The Mount Joy BPW (Business and Professional Women club) held its first dinner meeting of the 1979/80 year at Hostetter's on Monday, September 24.

The Foundation Committee, chaired by Carol Lambert, presented a Back to School program that featured the singing of nostalgic songs from the "dear old golden rule days" and the completion of a self-evaluation form about continuing educational interests among women.

Mr. John Eterline spoke about life-long learning through part-time studies. He defined the objectives of the adult education program offered by the Lancaster County Vo-Tech schools:

1. to train people in basic skills and knowledge of the job market;
2. to upgrade oneself for job advancement;
3. to broaden or improve one's knowledge in associated skills for better performance on the job;
4. to satisfy one's own self development.

Information about adult education classes can be obtained at the post office, high school, the Vo-Tech schools, the YMCA, and the guidance service.

Julie Endslow of RD1 Marietta was honored as Donegal High's Girl of the Month.

President Fry announced that the Candle Light Tour of Homes, sponsored annually by the Mount Joy BPW, has been postponed from this year until next year. Plans are underway for a November, 1980, tour.

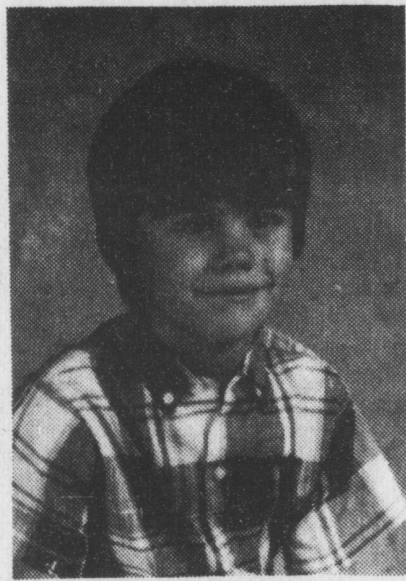

Delegates were elected to the Fall District Meeting to be held on Oct. 20 and 21 at the Holiday Inn in York. They are Lillian Fry, Ada Thompson, and Gail Hoover. Carol Lambert, Hazel Baker, and Mary Bookwalter will serve as alternates.

National Business Women's Week will be observed from Oct. 21-27. This is a national effort to recognize the achievements and contributions of working women in America.

Columbia J-Cs to hold jaunt with 2 and 5 mile runs for young and old on Sunday, October 28

The Columbia Area Jaycees will sponsor their second annual Jaycee Jaunt, Sunday, October 28, at 2PM. There will be a five mile run and a two mile fun run. The start and finish line will be Glatfelter Field.

The entire route of the run is on a macadamized surface with no dirt roads.

There will be five divisions for both men and women: 13 and under; 14 to 19; 20 to 29; 30 to 39; and 40 or over. Plaques will be awarded the top three winners in each class.

Times will be furnished to the runners at each mile mark and a water station will be provided at 2.5 miles. Traffic control will also be provided throughout the route.

A registration fee of $3.50 will be required. All entries that are postmarked by Saturday, October 20, will receive a tank top shirt. Any registrations after that date will be $4.50 and no shirt. Registrations can be made until 1:30PM, October 28th.

Schedule for Race Day is: Registration begins, 12PM, and ends at 1:30PM. At 2 PM the two mile fun run begins; 2:05 the five mile run begins; 3:30PM the Awards Ceremony begins.

Refreshments will be served following the races at Glatfelter Field and rest rooms will also be provided.

If additional information is needed, please contact either Gary Myers, 720 S. 13th. St., Columbia, Pa. (684-5809) or Jim Hufford, Chairman for the Jaunt (299-4296).

Applications are available at Jack's Locker Room, Columbia, Pa.; Athlete's Foot, Park City; or Inside Track, Lancaster. Other locations will be announced in the near future.

Cute saying from Riverview

[this item for our cute sayings section was donated by LaVon Harnish. —Ed.]

Mrs. Harnish and her second grade class at Riverview were discussing a Social Studies unit on "Schools." They were comparing various types of schools when a student asked, "Who owns our school?"

One boy answered, confidently, "Mr. Zimmerman!" Mrs. Harnish explained that Mr. Zimmerman is the principal at Riverview but he doesn't own the school.

David Bartles was certain that it was Mrs. Flanagan, the secretary. Lloyd Kennedy took another guess —"Mr. Long?" (the custodian).

This opened the door to a very informative discussion on who actually "owns" and finances our school, in fact all the schools in our district.
