

NEW FOR LANCASTER COUNTY*

IN AN EMERGENCY, DIAL 911 FOR

POLICE

FIRE

AMBULANCE

*Customers in these exchanges	Call these numbers for emergency services
284	299-5501
285	285-9911
286	286-0170
529	529-2117
548	548-2101
593	593-5911
626	299-5501
687	299-5501

As 911 service becomes available, you'll be notified.

published as a public service by

THE UNITED TELEPHONE COMPANY OF PENNSYLVANIA

United Telephone System

Coach Deshler looking up after L-S game

[Continued from back page]

spirits. Deshler felt the potential was there all the time. The defense was the "best all year." The offense was successful when it counted, if inconsistent. "We made a lot of mistakes," Deshler said. "We could have been beaten." He would have been happy for 14 points; he never expected three touchdowns.

If the team can improve its offense, if they can keep up the defense, if they can keep playing as a team, Coach Deshler thinks the Donegal Indians "have a shot at the championship."

Dr. Predicto foresees some victories for DHS

Dr. Predicto, disgruntled by the unsympathetic treatment he suffered at the hands of our sports editor, has insisted on telling his own story directly to our readers. Our editor takes no responsibility for the following article, which comes straight, as it were, from the horse's mouth. Readers are forewarned that our sports editor considers Predicto a mad mathematical genius, whose opinions, like his oversized brain, are brilliant, but cold-blooded and downright pessimistic!

—Editor's Note

by Dr. Predicto

NOTES:

Dr. Predicto apologizes to the Indian fans for his lack of faith in last week's game. I even went against my own calculations, which indicated an Indian victory. Dr. Predicto maintains his one-game edge in the battle of predicting aces. Jim Hersh moves into second place, while Jon Ferguson falls into a third place tie with Randy Montgomery.

Highlights of Dr. P.'s season thus far: Wilson on top in Section One and Garden Spot's amazing success in Section Three.

Keep your hopes high Donegal fans, the worst is over. After this week's game the Indians will enjoy a three game winning streak. Unfortunately things will end on a sour note for the Green and White as they meet Annville-Cleona on the Little Dutchmen's home field. This will leave Donegal with an overall record of 5 wins and 6 losses and a Section Three record of 4 wins and 3 losses, good for fourth place in the section.

OBSERVATIONS:

After the debacle in Manheim, Donegal has played with much more pride and spirit. The loss to Solanco, which could have easily gone the other way, and Donegal's good defensive job in the Garden Spot game have sparked a heretofore missing tenacity in the overall team play. The game against Lampeter-Strasburg was not perfect but great strides have been taken to right the wavering Green and White Express. I believe the Indians will represent themselves admirably against the awesome Raider attack of ELCO.

WHERE IS THE PASSING GAME??

SECTION ONE

Wilson over Lebanon
Cedar Crest over Muhlenberg
McCaskey over Governor Mifflin
Manheim Township over Lancaster Catholic
Hempfield over Conestoga Valley

SECTION TWO

Warwick over Solanco
Manheim Central over Ephrata
Columbia over E-Town

SECTION THREE

ELCO over Donegal 28-6
Annville-Cleona over Garden Spot
Lampeter-Strasburg over Lebanon Catholic
Cocalico over Northern Lebanon

Cancer Support Group to meet

A Cancer Support Group meeting for cancer patients, their friends and families will be held Tues., October 16, 7:30PM. at Highland Presbyterian Church.

The evening's program is a panel of hospital and social service agencies who will describe what services each has to support the patient and his family.

Audience participation is expected and welcomed.

The Highland Presbyterian Church is just north of Route 30 on Route 272 (Oregon Pike).