

The new Assumption of the Blessed Virgin Mary Church is dedicated on Union School Road, Mount Joy, last Sunday. From left to right: the Most Rev. William H. Keeler, Auxiliary Bishop of Harrisburg, delivering the homily; seated on pulpit, Deacon James Yecera; Father Victor Maksimowicz, pastor of the Assumption B.V.M. Church; the Most Rev. Joseph T. Daley, Bishop of Harrisburg; Father Herman Czaster, Vicar Representative; and Deacon Henry Bucher.

Dr. Will at St. Mark's on World Order Sun.

St. Mark's United Methodist Church of Mount Joy will observe World Order Sunday on October 21st, with Dr. Herman Will as the guest speaker.

Dr. Will is the General Secretary of the Board of World Peace of the United Methodist Church. He has been involved in the peace movement all of his life, and has served the United Methodist Church in this capacity for more than 20 years.

Dr. Will, a layman, is a lawyer who has traveled widely in the pursuit of peace. He represents the denomination before the federal government. He has recently returned from a trip through South America.

Missionfest at Mt. Joy Mennonite Oct. 19-21

A weekend missionary conference—Missionfest '79—will be held at the Mount Joy Mennonite Church starting on Friday evening, Oct. 19th, at 7:00pm, when Dr. Myron Augsburger, president of Eastern Mennonite College, will speak on "Evangelism and Futurism." Special music will be presented by the Landisville District Children's choir and the Andy Hess family.

On Saturday morning, Oct. 20, at 8:00am, a prayer breakfast will be held in the Fellowship Hall with Dr. Augsburger speaking on "Mission and the Intercessory Prayer," with music by the Mount Joy Motet Singers.

On Saturday evening at 7:00pm a veteran missionary from East Africa, David Shenk, will speak on the question, "Is the sun rising or setting on overseas missions?" Music will be given by the Don and Lorraine Sheeler family.

Sunday morning, the 21st, at 10:00am, Dr. Gilbert Peterson, president of Lancaster Bible College, will preach a sermon entitled, "The Commendation That Challenges." The New Song, a college group, will sing.

On Sunday evening at 7:00 Richard Showalter will conduct a Bible study. Raymond Charles will present "Partners in Missions" and Dr. Abraham Davis will preach the evening sermon, "What About Samaria?" A group called Everlasting Joy will sing at this closing program.

The members of the Mount Joy Mennonite Congregation, with senior pastor Shelley Shellenberger, associate pastor Nate Showalter, and youth pastor Joe Sherer, extend a sincere invitation to their neighbors and friends of all denominations to join them for Missionfest '79.

"A Great Day of Singing" to be heard Oct. 21 at Glossbrenner United Methodist, Mount Joy

"A Great Day of Singing," a special day on the United Methodist Church calendar, will be celebrated with an evening of music at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church on Sunday, Oct. 21, at 7:30pm.

The Chancel Choirs of St. Mark's UMC and Glossbrenner UMC of Mount Joy, and Handbell Choir of St. Paul's UMC of Elizabethtown, along with guest soloist Romayne Bidgett of Mount Joy, will combine their talents for this evening of music.

The combined Chancel Choirs will sing "O For a Thousand Tongues to Sing" by Beck. Soloists in the anthem will be John Way and Sandra Heisey. Accompaniment will include the Handbell Choir and two trumpets by Mitchell Mummaw and Bruce Wagner. The combined choirs will also sing Handel's "Hallelujah Chorus."

St. Mark's Chancel Choir, under the direction of Leonard Smith, will sing "Good News" arranged by Smith, "Nearer My God to Thee" by Coates, and "Gloria in Excelsis" by Mozart. Mrs. Darlene Sugarwala will accompany.

Glossbrenner's Chancel Choir will sing the early Moravian anthem "Harken! Stay Close to Jesus Christ" with Stephen Smith as soloist; "Praise Him" by J.S. Bach; and "Swingin' Chariot" by Wells. Mrs. Carol Borry will direct and Mrs. Jean Longenecker will be the organist.

The Handbell Choir, under the direction of Dennis E. Moyer, will play

"Bell Joyance" by Lorenz and "Fanfare for Bells" by McCleary.

Mrs. Bridgett will sing

two numbers.

The public is cordially invited to attend this special musical service.

Marietta Assembly of God to hold revival services, Oct. 19 to Oct. 21

Revival services will be conducted nightly at 7:00pm beginning Friday, Oct. 19th and ending Sunday, Oct. 21 in the Marietta Assembly of God, Rte. 141 and Oremine Road, Marietta, it was announced by the Rev. E. Leroy Hoover, pastor of the church.

The gospel themes will be salvation for the soul, divine healing for the body, the baptism in the Holy Spirit for all believers, and the second coming of Christ.

The guest speaker will be the Rev. William Caldwell, Lit.D., of Tulsa, Oklahoma, evangelist, author and head of Front Line Evangelism, a worldwide missionary agency.

Doctor Caldwell's ministry has taken him to all fifty states and many countries around the world. Some of his books are among the best sellers.

His most recent overseas crusades have been in Korea, Japan, Sri Lanka, Ecuador, Peru, Argentina, the Canary Islands, Senegal, Singapore, the Philippines, Australia, India, the South Pacific and in communist Eastern Europe. He has ministered to some of the largest crowds in the history of evangelical Christianity.

His sermon subjects include: Meet the Healer, Your Miracle, Gifts of the Spirit, Tongues, Running Away from Home, Prosperity Now, Lying Spirits, Demons and Exorcism, Samson and Guess Who, and When the World Goes BOOM.

The evangelist will pray for the sick at each service. On Sunday, the services are at 10:35am and 7:00pm. The public is invited to attend.

Bake sale to be held in Marietta, Oct. 19

The churches of Marietta will hold a bake sale from 3 to 7PM., October 19, in front of Spangler's Appliance Store for the benefit of UNICEF, the United Nations Children's Fund. All donations will be appreciated.

UNICEF is non-political and strives to improve the condition of children in the world's most deprived areas. It helps children throughout the world, regardless of race, religion, or nationality. It is financed entirely by voluntary contributions from governments and concerned people in more than 120 countries.

Women's helpshops at St. Mark's, Oct. 29

St. Mark's United Methodist Church of Mount Joy will host the United Methodist Women of Lancaster's annual helpshops on Oct. 29th at 7:30p.m.

Included in the roster of speakers will be Mrs. Samuel Balsbaugh and Mrs. Arthur Sprecher, both of Mount Joy.

Warm robes to help you through the winter

All slightly irregular solids, fancies & floral quilted & fleece - all longs

Sizes Small, Medium & Large

if perfect	now priced
$20.00	$10.99
$18.00	$8.99
$15.00	$5.49

The New HEINEMAN'S

247 Locust St., Columbia

OPEN EVERY WEDNESDAY UNTIL 5