SENIOR CITIZEN CARDS HONORED

Guest speaker John Shenk prepares to hypnotize Ann Bernard at last Wednesday's joint meeting of the Mount Joy Welcome Wagon and the Joyceettes. The two groups get together once a year, alternating entertainment responsibilities. This year's program was prepared by Welcome Wagon.

Telephone books out

Once again, United Tel has come out with a beautiful phone book cover.

This year The Phone Book (yes, Virginia, it really has a title, and that's it) has a picture of a grandfather, a child, and a dog. The photo was adapted from a corporate advertisement of last year for United Telecommunications, which operates United Tel.

A new feature of The Phone Book is the guide the human services section. It was prepared with the help of Lancaster Information Services.

A calendar is again included, on the back cover. Emergency numbers are inside the front, and a space is provided for writing often-called numbers.

Penguins have "built-in" insulation against cold weather.

So should your home.

Now's the time to check your home to be sure it has enough insulation. By insulating, you'll help hold down your heating costs this winter. Improving insulation in your home can reduce energy waste by as much as 30 percent...which means big savings for you. Plus you can get tax credits for certain energy conservation measures.

Here's what we recommend:

Ceiling — R-30 — about 10 inches of insulation
Walls — R-16 — full thick wall insulation with insulating sheathing
Floors — R-19 — about 6 inches of insulation

NOTE: The "R" number is a standard industry designation which indicates resistance to heat flow. The higher the "R" number the more effective the insulation will be.

A few more things to do now to keep your home comfy in cold weather: check caulking and weather stripping around windows and doors • install storm windows and doors • clean or replace dirty furnace filters • seal drafts around receptacles and switch plates

Get your home ready for winter now.
A home that's fully insulated is a home that's "Got It!"
