Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKain

McKains' Golden Sun.

The 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Paul McKain, of 618 W. Market St., Marietta, was celebrated with a drop-in party at the English United Presbyterian Church, which was hosted by the McKains' children.

They were married by the late Rev. Edward Hayes in Centenary Methodist Church in Westminster, Maryland, on October 26, 1929.

Mrs. McKain, the former Ruth Sharp, is the daughter of Aaron Sharp and the late Pauline Kibler Sharp. Paul is the son of the late Frank and Elizabeth Bolander McKain.

These Marietta natives have been members of the Presbyterian Church all of their lives. Paul was a Sunday School teacher there for 25 years, and has served as deacon and elder. His wife was the pianist.

Ruth, who has many plants in her home, was formerly employed by the Marietta Silk Co. Paul is retired from the Olmstead Air Force Depot in Marietta. He takes great pleasure in his garden.

The McKains are members of the Marietta Senior League, and Ruth is a member of the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital.

Their four children are: Betty, the wife of William Bitzer, Mount Joy; Janet, the wife of Sam Ney, Maytown; Evelyn, the wife of George Arnold, Marietta; and Robert, who lives in Pennsacola, Florida.

Ruth and Paul have 11 grandchildren and a great-grandchild.

Marietta Lions hear Morse on Columbia

Rollin Morse of Columbia was the guest speaker for the Marietta Lions Club when they met for dinner at the Colonial Inn. Mr. Morse is a member of the Columbia Historical Society. He showed the Lions his slides of Columbia's historic structures and talked about restoration.

President Bob Spangler conducted the business meeting. The club voted to sponsor the annual Christmas lighting program. Richard Smedley will chair the program this year.

The Marietta Jaycees will assist the Lions.

The lights should be up for the tour on December 2.

The Lions also voted to help the Marietta Restoration Associates with food at an event to be held in the Community House. Ben Thompson is in charge of this.

The annual Ladies Night is planned for December 13th. It will be held at the Colonial Inn. An interesting program is in the works.

Joe Gilmartin was appointed liaison to a Maytown Boy Scout troop which the Lions Club has agreed to sponsor. Terry Shope and James Price will get in touch with the scouts for representatives to a District 14 event.

The Lions Club recently contributed to the Maytown Fire Co. and have also helped a local youth achieve his Eagle Scout Badge.
