

Robin Winders prepares the table for her co-ed cooking class, while Tim Santiago looks on. 7th and 8th grade students all take home-ec, and their teacher, Mrs. Fernbaugh, feels that the course has much to offer all students, male or female. One male student remarked that while cooking is "OK, I like eating better."

Gloria Althouse tells BPW about gift boxes

Mrs. Gloria Althouse of Manheim, who addressed the last meeting of the Mount Joy Business and Professional Women, has an unusual way of packing gifts. She makes the box first, then finds something to put into it.

The boxes are made in the shape of candles, keys, trains, snow men, churches, hobby horses, and sleighs and reindeer. Mrs. Althouse showed the BPW women some of her creations.

The program was arranged by the Public Relations Committee, chaired by Mary Jane Hoffer.

BPW members came to this October meeting in costumes. The following members won prizes for their get-ups: Molly Hart, Marlene Bell, Yvonne Koser, Pat Shearer, Christine Brown, Ginny Horst, Pat Enos, Diane Rice, and Linda Krause. The Cat Questionnaire was won by Mary Bookwalter and Mildred Way.

The Donegal High Girl of the Month, Deb Torres, was introduced by Helen Hamilton, who chairs the Personal Development Committee.

Reports on the fall District Meeting at the York Holiday Inn were submitted by Lillian Fry, Ada Thompson, and Mary Bookwalter.

Mary Sprecher and Mary Sheets will serve as co-chairwomen of the Christmas Tree Trail benefit. An open house will be held on Dec. 15th between 5:00 and 8:00pm. Tickets are $2.

President Lillian Fry announced that the next board meeting will be on Nov. 12th at her home.

Ken Brandt, state representative, will be the guest speaker for the November meeting of the Mount Joy BPW.
