Dr. Wenger speaks to farm women; party planned

Farm Women's Society #8 met at the home of Patsy Warfel on West Main Street, Mount Joy, on Saturday, Nov. 17th, at 2:00pm. Kathryn Heisey, the Society President, was in charge. Ruth Musser led the ladies as they sang, "Come Ye Thankful People Come." Devotional time followed as she gave thoughts on Thanksgiving. A portion of Psalms 95 was read. Mary Grace Martin, Secretary, took the roll call and read the minutes. Nineteen members responded by mentioning some activity they had performed the morning prior to the meeting. Elizabeth Shuman gave the Treasurer's report.

Nominees for the coming year are: Anna Mae Derr for recording Secretary; Alice Myers for corresponding Secretary; and Hettie Gin-der for Treasurer. Other officers will serve as at present.

Dr. Wenger from Lancaster was the special guest speaker. He gave reminders to the group on how each one can be helpful to others. He stressed the fact that our standards should be kept high as we meet with different situations each day. This will create a good influence among others.

The social period followed. Hostesses were Patsy Warfel, Florence Musser, Esther Musser and Ruth Musser.

The Christmas Party will be held at the home of Vera Frey, Dec. 15th at 6:30pm. Each member is asked to bring one hot and one cold dish. Also, report is to be given the telephone squad as to how many plan to be present.
