The Patron Saint of fire prevention before she was removed from her position at the old fire house. She will be a part of the new building.

Help available for heating bills

Assistance to low-income people for help in meeting heating bills is now available from the Lancaster County Office of Aging. Applications are now being taken, by appointment only, at the Lancaster County Board of Assistance and the Office of Aging. Area offices of the Community Action Program are also involved in the program.

Eligibility limits are:

1-person household, $354 per month or $4250 per year; 2-person household, $469/month or $5625/year.

If you are getting SSI, you automatically meet the requirements.

Payments will range from $250 to $350, depending on the source of fuel. All usual types of fuel, including wood, may be funded.

For more information, call 299-7532 or 299-7979.

Lending A Hand...

...that's what we're here for...

We're your Community Bank. We're locally owned and locally managed. We're not part of any large banking system. We're independent. We work for this area, and this area, alone.

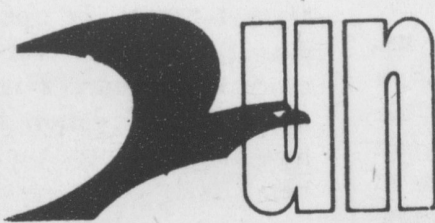

Our employees both live and work in your community. When you use our bank you are being served by neighborhood people. It's our job to see that you receive individual attention, the kind of personal attention you would expect from a neighbor.

Our officers and directors are actively involved in local organizations and affairs. Our staff takes a personal interest in the financial well-being of each and every member of our community.

When you save with us, a good portion of your deposits are used for personal loans for home improvements, new cars, medical expenses, and more, to help all the people in our community.

A good portion of you deposits are used for commercial loans to help local businesses grow which, in turn, helps create local jobs. We supply mortgage and rebuilding money to revitalize our commercial and industrial areas.

As your Independent Community Bank, we put your money to work for a better local economy. We put your money to work for you.
