White Chimneys tours December 14, 15, & 16

Candlelight tours will be held at historic "White Chimneys," ancestral mansion of the Slaymaker family near Gap, on December 14, 15 and 16. The home will be decorated for the Christmas season.

Costumed guides will conduct the tours from 7 to 9PM. They will proceed from the 1720 tavern room through progressive additions, built in 1790, 1807 and 1923.

Tours will end in the "White Chimneys" museum, the only one of its kind in the country, containing artifacts of the home's inhabitants from pre-Revolutionary times to the present. Particularly sought out articles are old wedding dresses, a walking stick presented to Amos Slaymaker from General Lafayette in 1825 when he visited "White Chimneys," a letter from Charles Lindberg to the present owner of the home, S.R. Slaymaker II, and a piece of an 1895 wedding cake.

Among new acquisitions which can be viewed for the first time are Amos Slaymaker's desk, dating from the late 1780's, and his barrel-back chair, of the same period.

"White Chimneys" is located on Rt. 30, 14 miles east of Lancaster; 1/2 a mile west of Gap on the North side of Rt. 30.
