

DID YOU HEAR

Mr. and Mrs. Edward S. Billett, Sr., of 116 E. Front St., Marietta, were married nine years ago yesterday, Dec. 4th, 1970.

The ceremony was performed by Mr. Billett's uncle, Rev. T. Grant Billett of York.

"We've had nine wonderful years together," said Mr. Billett.

Three Mount Joy students at Juniata College—Jeff Boulton, Jacob Jake Sherk, and Philip Good—have been awarded scholarships for this academic year.

Boulton and Sherk got Alumni Annual Support Fund scholarships, based on their class ranking, character, leadership and citizenship. Good was awarded a Cresswell - Shellenberger scholarship for science majors.

Jeff Boulton, a business and languages major, is the son of Mr. and Mrs. James Boulton of RD1. Jake Sherk is a chem major, and the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob G. Sherk of 207 S. Barbara Street. Good is studying pre-medicine. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Good, Jr., of 626 Donegal Springs Road.

Bradley Brooks of Bainbridge will perform with the E-town College Repertory Theater in "Hi There, Nobody," and "A Matter of Life and Death," on Dec. 6, 7 and 8, at 7:30pm in the Alumni Auditorium.

Jeffrey S. Bryant, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Bryant, 269 W. Walnut St., Marietta, has been named to the dean's list for the fall term at Penn State, York Campus.

Jeffrey is studying for an associate degree in computer science.

Bertha and Harry Riley of Marietta are featured on a 1980 Energy Calendar. The calendar, produced in California, has a photograph of the Rileys in their solar greenhouse. Call Bertha, 426-1735, if you are interested in purchasing a calendar.

Joseph S. Goslik, of Elizabethtown, was recently promoted from electrician to the newly-created position of assistant manager of administration for the Hersheypark & Arena maintenance staff.

Goslik's new responsibilities include coordination of material and work order systems, as well as monitoring the flow and control of all Hersheypark maintenance requirements.

Goslik served in the Air Force in automated material and planning. He retired after 21 years as a senior Master Sergeant.

Jo Ann Ramsey-Weigel, of Brian Ave., RD2 Mount Joy, is the new head nurse at the Student Health Center of Elizabethtown College. Mrs. Ramsey-Weigel trained at the Presbyterian University Hospital in Pittsburgh.

She previously worked as an occupational health nurse with M&M Mars, and at E-town High School.

Since taking over at the college, she has set new hours and introduced an "on call" system for off hours. She is planning a preventive medicine and health awareness program for the students.

PUFA to meet

The regular monthly meeting of PUFA will be held on Monday, Dec. 10th, at 7:30pm in the Donegal High School library. A special performance by the DHS Rhythm Singers will provide the entertainment.

The public is cordially invited to attend this meeting.

The DHS vocal department will present its annual Christmas Concert on Sunday, Dec. 16th, at 2:30pm in the auditorium at DHS. The chorus is under the direction of Mrs. RoAnn Lau.

The 8 point buck

This buck cost a hunter an awful lot of bucks

Dave Brodhecker of Maytown bagged the first deer of his hunting career at 7:50am on Monday, Nov. 26th, near Mt. Gretna. The 8-point buck weighed 120 pounds.

After dragging his deer down the mountainside to a point where it could be reached by his car, Dave seriously injured his right knee when he stepped out of his car. The day which began so successfully ended in Lancaster General Hospital.

Dave is at home now, but further medical attention is necessary.

Maytown Fire Co. Dec. 10

The regular monthly meeting of the Maytown-East Donegal Township Fire Company will be held on Monday, Dec. 10th, at 7:00pm.

Voting for officers for 1980 will be held at this meeting. Absentee ballots are available from the president or the company secretary.
