Candlelight services at Glossbrenner on Eve

The Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, will have two Christmas Eve Candlelight Services. The 7:30 pm. family service will feature the Carol Choir singing "Do You Hear What I Hear" by Regney and Shayne. A trio comprised of Sandra Heisey, Cynthia Charles and Stephen Smith will sing an arrangement of "Away in a Manger."

The traditional 11:00 pm service will feature the Chancel Choir which will sing "Hear the Glad Tidings" by Kirk, "The Jesus Gift" by Martin, and "Sing We All Noel" by Young.

The Rev. Clair L. Wagner, Jr., pastor, will preach on the theme "Suppose You Saw an Angel" at both services. Likewise, the candlelighting ceremony and a duet by Bruce and Mrk Wagner, "There were Shepherds" by Foster, will be a part of both services. The evening offering will go to the church's Cambodian Relief Appeal. Nursery care will be available for the early service only.

On Decmeber 23, the fourth Sunday in Advent, the 9:30 morning worship service will include a brass ensemble, songs by the Cherub Choir, and a solo by Sandra Heisey. The Chancel Choir anthem, "This Night in Distant Bethlehem", arranged by Roberts with flute accompaniment by Lisa Mumshaw, has been purchased to be sung in memory of Miss Ruth Fisher. Paster Wagner will preach on the theme "What God can do with Peanuts."

The sanctuary of Glossbrenner Church has been specially decorated for the holidays. Over 60 poinsettias and 100 candles along with window sill arrangements depicting the music of Christmas highlight the decorations.

The congregation cordially invites the community to share in these Christmas celebrations.

Restoration Associates to see slides on Dec. 20

A revised version of the slide show, "Marietta Structures," will be shown at the December 20th meeting of the Marietta Restoration Associates.

The meeting will be held in the Community House at 7:30 pm.

Also on the agenda are a report on the recent tour and discussion of current business.
