

Miss Grace Miller entertains Marietta Senior League

Miss Grace Miller addressed the Marietta Senior League in Pennsylvania Dutch at that club's annual Christmas banquet, held at Lacy's Lounge.

Besides Miss Miller's monologue, a parody was presented by Miss Elsie McCloskey, entitled, "The Salesgirls' Visit From St. Nicholas."

Ben Weaver served as master of ceremonies and Howard Shaub offered the invocation.

Each of the approximately 65 people who attended the meeting brought a donation gift. The gifts will be distributed to shut-ins this Thursday. On Friday, people in hospitals and homes will be given flowers.

The door prize was won by Mrs. Dorothy Yarnell—a poinsettia.

The Happy Birthday Song was sung for five members who had birthdays in December: Mrs. E.B. Grove, Mrs. Winnifred Buell, Mr. Robert Bergaus, Howard Shaub.

The Christmas decorations were put up under the direction of Mrs. Paul Portner, Miss Elsie McCloskey, Mrs. Charles Margraff and Mr. Howard Shaub.

The officers gave Mrs. Portner, the club's president, a monetary gift. She in turn gave each officer a remembrance.

The January meeting of the Marietta Senior League will be held on Monday, the 7th, at 1:30pm, in the Community House.

Mount Joy Leisure Club holds Christmas party at Hostetter's

The Mount Joy Area Leisure Club held their Christmas party recently at Hostetter's with 163 present. Following the invocation by Jay Sherk a very delicious dinner was served. Following the dinner, president Joe Shaeffer introduced the program for the evening. Mrs. Lau and the Rhythm Singers, from Donegal High School, presented a very delightful and enjoyable program. It was so much enjoyed by all present, that at the close of the program, they were given a standing ovation.

Following the program, all joined in singing Christmas carols with Mildred Way at the piano. The Christmas story was read from the Bible by Grace Shaeffer.

There was no formal business meeting. The only announcement by President Shaeffer concerned the bus trip to Bethlehem.

The nominating committee, consisting of Chairman Joy Sherk, Dorothy Sherk, Warren Bentzel and Ralph Berrier, gave a report of nominations. Nominated for president, Joe Shaeffer; First Vice President, James Schneider; Second Vice President, Eva Groff; Secretary, Teresa Heisey; Asst. Secretary, Ruth Brandt; Treasurer, Almeda Hostetter; Asst. Treasurer, John Brown; Recording Secretary, Romaine Good; and Asst. Recording Secretary, Irvin LeVin. There being no other nominations, the above officers were elected to serve next year.

Hostesses for the January meeting are Ethel Brandt, Mrs. Ray Burris, Mrs. Dorothy Chapin, Esther Diffenderfer, Mrs. Nora Eby, Lena Engle, Mrs. Earl Eshleman, Mrs. Maude Frey, Alice Bryan and Jenniw Brandt.

Prizes for the evening consisted of 24 fruit baskets and two poinsettia plants which were used for table decorations, and arranged by Bertha Foreman and her committee.

A very delightful and entertaining evening came to a close with President Shaeffer thanking the officers and committees for their fine cooperation and help. One new member, Mrs. Warren Heisey, was presented.

The next meeting will be January 14 and will begin at 1:00 pm. A meeting of the officers and committees is being planned for the beginning of January to plan for the year.

Mount Joy Joyceettes prepare to select outstanding woman of the year

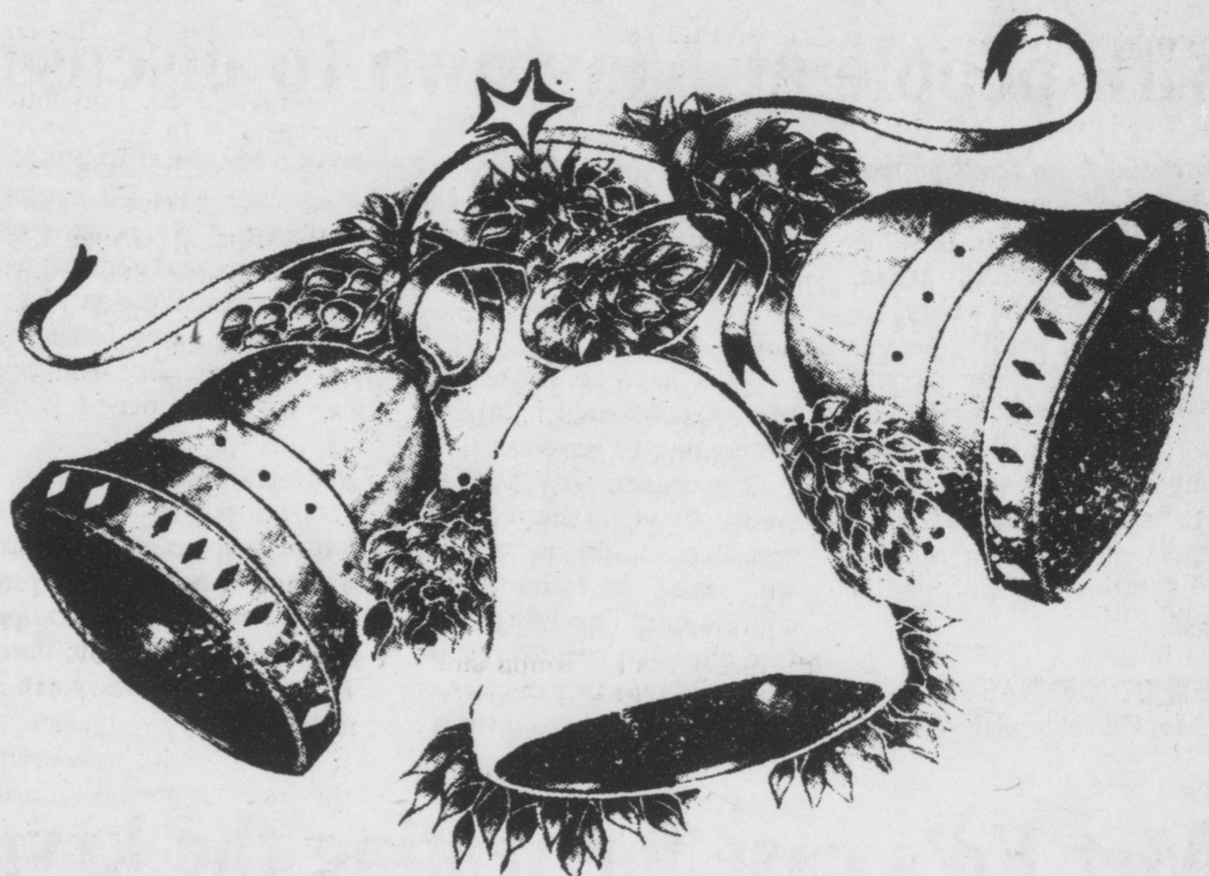

The Mount Joy Joyceettes will present their sixth annual "Outstanding Woman of the Year Award" on Saturday, January 26, 1980. The presentation will be made in conjunction with the Jaycees Distinguished Service Award Banquet to be held at Hostetter's Dining Hall.

Each year all organizations in the community are invited to participate in the selection of our award winner by submitting nominations. A panel of five judges, consisting of Joyceettes and citizens of Mount Joy, review the list of nominees and choose the recipient of the award.

The nominee must be a woman who is eighteen years of age or older, is a resident of Mount Joy or has a Mount Joy mailing address, and has recently volunteered her talents, ideas and labor in contributing to the betterment of the community.

We wish you a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.
