Mayor Flannigan proclaims Jan. 6-12 United Cerebral Palsey week in Marietta

Mayor Robert Flannigan has proclaimed the week of January 6-12 as UCP Week in Marietta. Nationwide, attention focuses on the individuals who are born with cerebral palsy or develop the same symptoms due to an accident or illness. This year UCP week ends with a National Telethon via ABC, Channel 27, WTPA, Harrisburg beginning Saturday, January 12 at 11PM, and continuing through 7PM Sunday.

In Lancaster County, over 330 individuals and their families are served through the Lancaster affiliate. The person with cerebral palsy or related condition may receive supportive services, counseling, transportation, home service or program activity which includes Saturday recreation, adult developmental classes, social club, therapy, or community living home. The continuance of UCP in Lancaster County is dependent upon voluntary giving and fund raising projects.

For additional information contact UCP at 226 West Chestnut St., Lancaster, Pa. 17603.

WLAN radio to go 24 hours

WLAN-AM 1390 will broadcast its music, news, and information programming 24 hours a day, beginning December 28. Previously WLAN signed off between 2 and 5AM.

During the new midnight to 6AM show, WLAN will add contests and more oldies to its music programming. New music releases will be featured, and the WLAN news team will keep Lancaster Countians informed throughout the night. Host John Grady will also take listeners' requests.

WLAN-AM is located at 1390 on the dial.
