PUBLIC HEARING NOTICE

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a PUBLIC HEARING will be held by the Mount Joy Borough Zoning Hearing Board on Friday, January 25, 1980, at 7:30P.M. in the Borough Offices Building, 21 East Main Street, Mount Joy, to consider the following petition:

1. Harold K. Keller, 38 West Main Street, Mount Joy, is requesting a variance of Section 503.e, Minimum Lot Size, of the Mount Joy Borough Zoning Ordinance of 1975. Mr. Keller's desire is to sub-divide a tract of land on which is situate a residence located at 209-211 West Donegal Street. The subdivision will cause both lots to contain less than the minimum area allowable in an R-3, High Density Residential, district.

All interested citizens are encouraged to attend and present comments on these matters.

borough police department. The machine costs $1050 and will enable the borough police to measure the speed of passing vehicles in the span of 6 feet on borough streets.

Two tapes stretched across a street six feet from each other and connected to an electronic device will provide a reading of a passing motorist's speed. Chief Bruce Kline anticipates an appreciable increase in arrests for speeding after his department begins using the device.

Mount Joy borough committees named

Mount Joy Borough Council President Ammon Smith announced the following new committees of the council:

Administration-Chairman Charles Ricedorf and Paul Stehman;

Finance-Chmn. Virginia Horst and Ammon Smith;

Health and Safety-Chmn. Don Zeller and Miller Wolgemuth;

Property-Chmn. Paul Stehman and Don Zeller;

Public Works-Chmn. Russell Chapin, Robert Stoner, and John Harnish;

Parks and Playgrounds-Chmn. Miller Wolgemuth and John Harnish.

Pres. Smith asked the committees to set regular dates for their meetings, so that he and Borough Manager Bruce Hamer could plan their attendances. He also requested that the committees set goals for the year, so that they can measure their accomplishments at the end of the year.

Officer William Reuter praised for assistance in Brady incident

Mount Joy police officer William G. Reuter was praised for his assistance in the Brady siege last week in Elizabethtown, in which Brady killed his mother and wounded an Elizabethtown policeman.

A letter from the Elizabethtown chief of police to Mayor James Gingrich was read aloud by the mayor at the Monday night meeting of the Mount Joy Borough Council.

Garbage fee penalty postponed

The penalty for non-payment of the Mount Joy garbage collection fee of $36 per month was postponed to March 3.

This action was taken by Mount Joy Borough Council, to ease the financial pressure on many residents around the first of the year, when so many bills come due.

Randy Valez to become new part-time policeman

Mount Joy Borough Council accepted the resignation of part-time policeman Larry Waltz, who is now employed full-time by the Mount Joy Township police.

To replace Waltz, Council approved the appointment of Randy Valez, 19, a graduate of Donegal High School.
