

January 28 is the deadline for businesses to file for TMI loans

Business owners who suffered economic injury as the result of occurrences at the Three Mile Island Nuclear Plant, are reminded by the U.S. Small Business Administration that the deadline for submitting applications for loans expires January 28, 1980.

James L. Higgins, Disaster Coordinator for SBA said the deadline affects business owners in Dauphin, Cumberland, York, Lancaster and Lebanon counties.

Applicants seeking additional information may write Mr. Robert Howerter, SBA, Harrisburg Branch Office, 100 Chestnut Street, Harrisburg, Pa. 17101, or call 717-782-3810.

Jack and Grace Thomas celebrate 25 years together

A surprise drop-in party was held recently for Jack and Grace Thomas of 233 North Barbara St., Mount Joy. The couple celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary January 1.

The party was planned by the Thomas's children: Julie and Tracy Hamilton, John and Bev Thomas, Deb and Doug Mueller, Mary and Scott Stark and Lori Thomas. About seventy friends and relatives attended the party.

Guests provided a money tree for the couple. "They plan to visit her brother in California," daughter Julie told us, "and we felt this was a nice way of getting them started."

The couple has lived in Mount Joy for the past twelve years. They were from Williamsport, PA, originally, and spent a good deal of time in New York.

"Some of the people we had invited could not attend because of the weather," said Julie, "but they surprised my parents with telephone calls. It was just a way for us to say how great we think our parents really are!"

Unseasonably warmer weather last week has forced the budding of spring flowers in Lancaster County. In Mount Joy it was reported that Johnny Jump-Ups were in bloom at the home of Sule Snyder, Birchland Avenue. Above, are jasmine blooms in front of the O.K. Snyder Insurance Agency, Main Street, Mount Joy.
