Mount Joy J-Cs select R.D. Stoner for '79 Distinguished Service Award

Robert D. Stoner, 25 North Barbara Street, Mount Joy, was the recipient of the Mount Joy Jaycees Distinguished Service Award. Bill Martin, last year's winner, present him with a plaque and an inscribed watch.

Stoner, last year's Mount Joy Jaycees president, is currently serving as Region 8 director of the Pennsylvania Jaycees. He is also a newly elected member of the Mount Joy Borough Council.

Stoner has been involved with many projects throughout the past year, including: the Miss Donegal Area Pageant, the 75-plus banquet, the Community Prayer Breakfast, the Hugh O'Brien Youth Leadership Award, the Memorial Day carnival and parade, Apple Butter Week, the Jaycees Road Rally, the bicycle rodeo and the flag project.

Stoner participated in personal development and Leadership in Action programs both locally and in Tulsa, Okla.

In addition to his community service he is also active at St. Mark's United Methodist Church in Mount Joy. He serves as choir president and has served as chairman of the church's worship and preaching commission.

The 28-year-old Stoner is a 1969 graduate of Donegal High School. He received his Associate degree in architectural drafting from Triangle Institute of Technology, Pittsburg in 1971 and is employed as the General Manager of Slauch Homes, Mark I Construction of Lancaster.

He is the Son of Harvey and Beatrice Stoner, 121 West Main Street, Mount Joy and is married to the former Cynthia Herman. The Stoners have two daughters, Stephanie, 5, and Nicole, 1.

The Keynote speaker of the D.S.A. Banquet was Pennsylvania Auditor General Al Benedict. Mayor James Gingrich served as master of ceremonies. Robert Phillips, Pennsylvania Jaycees state president, and Jerry Andria, Pennsylvania Jaycees state secretary also spoke.

Mary Elizabeth Hoffmaster, left, receives an engraved pewter plate from Dorothy Schock. Mrs. Hoffmaster was named Outstanding Woman of the Year of 1979 by the Mount Joy Jaycee-ettes.

Mary Elizabeth Hoffmaster selected by Jaycee-ettes as Woman of Year

Mary Elizabeth Hoffmaster was named Outstanding Woman of the Year for 1979 by the Mount Joy Jaycee-ettes at the Saturday night Jaycee D.S.A. Banquet. Dorothy Schock, last year recipient of the award, presented Mary with an engraved pewter plate in recognition of her contributions to the community.

Mary, a life-long Mount Joy resident, is a registered nurse and a certified emergency medical technician employed by Dr. Miles Newman of Elizabethtown. Mary has shared her expertise in nursing through her work with the Mount Joy Ambulance Association. She has assisted with ambulance calls since 1952 and currently serves as a crew chief for the association. She has also served as chairperson and vice chairperson of the Mount Joy Ambulance committee.

She has volunteered her time giving shots and vaccines at almost every clinic in Mount Joy over the past twenty years.
