Family of 4 is homeless due to fire

A trailer at Kline's Trailer Court, Routes 441 and 743, Marietta, was completely destroyed by fire Monday morning, leaving a family of four homeless.

"The alarm sounded at 7:15 am, and when we arrived, the structure was completely engulfed in flames," said Charles Shaffner, Maytown-East Donegal Fire Chief.

The fire was started by an eleven-year-old, and was determined as arson, reported officials. Two boys were alone at the Donald Vanpelt home when the fire broke out.

Assisting at the base was the Bainbridge Fire Co. The Marietta and Florin Companies were on the scene.

Damage was estimated at $8000 to the structure and $2000 for the contents.

Red Cross was meeting the needs of the family Monday morning.

The Marietta Restoration Associates opened new information center Sat.

The Marietta Restoration Associates officially opened their information center at 36 West Market Street, Marietta, this past Saturday afternoon.

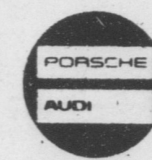

Lance Hardcastle, chairman of the project, said, "The center will be open each Saturday morning from 9 am until noon. It is equipped with information concerning the various aspects of restoring structures." Members of the Associates will man the center.

The information center will serve the public with various workshops as well as the regular restoration material. This coming Tuesday evening, February 5, a brass rubbing workshop will be presented by Dorothy Cook of Lancaster. Ms. Cook does old English brass tombstone rubbing and will have some of her work on exhibit. The free program will begin at 7:30. For further information, call 426-1694 or 426-3214.
