Marietta's Home Building & Loan merges with Central S & L Assoc.

The merger of The Home Building and Loan Association, Marietta, PA, founded in 1898, with Central Savings & Loan Association, Columbia, PA, founded in 1925, has been approved by the Pennsylvania Department of Banking and the Federal Savings and Loan Insurance Corporation.

These local institutions have been serving this area for nearly a century, and proud they might be, for each survived a major depression and several serious recessions.

During the past twenty years this area has shown growth and prosperity resulting from a diverse economic base and hard working citizens.

These Associations have assisted thousands in making home ownership become a reality. This was accomplished by insuring the savers that their savings were invested in good, solid local real estate while savings were earning the highest legal rates of interest. Savers are further protected as the Association is a member of the Federal Savings & Loan Insurance Corporation, which insured accounts to $40,000.00.

The Association is looking forward, confident that they will be able to meet the needs of this growing region.

The Central Savings & Loan Association Board of Directors and its management consists entirely of local people, all of which will continue to serve in the best interest of this area.

Mount Joy Jaycees' CPR course taught by Ambulance Assoc. crew

The Mount Joy Jaycees have been sponsoring courses in CPR (cardio-pulmonary resuscitation).

Instructors were supplied by the Mount Joy Ambulance Association: Jessie Crouser, Debbie Hagey, and Bill Martin.

The course ran for a total of 12 hours on Monday and Wednesday evenings in the basement of Trinity Lutheran Church in Mount Joy.

People in the course learned what to do if a person's heart stops beating or he stops breathing.

The course will be offered again, and the Jaycees hope that as many people as possible will learn the life-saving skills.

Persons interested in taking the course should contact Dave Dumeyer of the Jaycees by dialing 653-1262.

The above picture shows Cindy Stoner and Bill Bower practicing the life-saving techniques as a team on a dummy.
