Local family homeless after fire on Sunday

The Michael Drace family residing at 12 W. High St., Maytown, were driven out of their home when an 8:42a.m. fire gutted their concrete bungalow.

When fire and smoke spread rapidly from a downstairs bedroom into a furnace room, and escalated through the heat ducts and partitions, the parents and five children walked to safety. There were no injuries.

State and county fire marshals said the source of the apparently accidental fire may have been a cigarette lighter, but the cause remains under investigation. Damage was estimated at $40,000 to the home and $20,000 to the contents.

The family stayed with Drace's parents in Maytown and the Red Cross assisted with immediate needs.

Most of the loss was covered by insurance. Marietta and Florin Fire Companies assisted Maytown-East Donegal Firemen and the Susquehanna Rescue Truck was there to fill air tanks.
