Parents of Donegal Braves teams choose officers for upcoming season

The first meeting of the 1980 season of the Parents Association for the Donegal Braves was held January 29 at the Mount Joy Restaurant. Parent attendance was fair.

New officers for the season are: Joyce Haimes, president; Betty Byrd, vice president; Harriet Ney, secretary; and Brenda Tompkins, treasurer.

Topics of discussion included the organization by-laws, placing orders for new regulation helmets and ordering additional cheer-leading uniforms.

Large emphasis was placed on outstanding equipment that, as of date, has not been returned to the equipment manager by team members.

The athletic director's report consisted of updated information regarding the Red Rose League.

Owing to the large financial obligation of new helmets, it was unanimously approved by the organization to hold a grocery shopping spree. Tickets will be available at the next scheduled meeting to be held Tuesday, February 26 at 6:30 pm at the Mount Joy Restaurant.

Lions Club of Marietta hears nuclear message

Thirteen members of the Marietta Lions Club were guests of the Columbia Lions Club at the Elks Club in Columbia. The speaker for the event was Richard McGoey, resident nuclear engineer for TMI.

Mr. McGoey stated that the "greatest concern at the moment for administrators at TMI is the disposing of the radioactive gases." He remarked that progress is slow, but he sees a bright future in the operations.

Presently, deposits may be dumped only in Washington state, according to McDoe, and the governor of that state has claimed that by 1982 this will now longer be legal.

McGoey noted that several solutions are under consideration by nuclear officials. A final decision has not yet been reached, but he noted that all gases are presently stored in tanks where they are neutralized before being released.
