week and jogs when she can. "You have to work hard to fit everything into your schedule," she says. "But, the kids are a great help around the house and everything seems to work out pretty well."

Ricky told us that he thinks his family is pretty great. "Both Mom and Tim are easy to talk to. They listen to what I have to say. My parents love me," he says. With an impish grin he adds, "That's the best I could come up with on short notice."

Have something hanging around the house that has outstayed its welcome?
