Donegal Neighborhood Girl Scouts observe Girl Scout Week—Mar. 9-15

Girl Scouts in the Donegal Neighborhood, Witness Tree District, attended church services to kick off the beginning of Girl Scout week. Mount Joy troops visited sponsoring congregations while Marietta troops attended special services at the United Methodist Church.

Troop #32 Mount Joy with leaders Nancy Kopf and Ella Gainer, have adopted as an all-year service project—designing the windows at the Mount Joy Library. As a special service the troop donated to the president of the library board, Anna Milanof, a set of current girl scout Handbooks which may be loaned by any troop for use. The titles of the various programs are "Worlds to Explore for Brownies;" "Juniors Junior Badge and Insignia Book;" Cadette Hand Book and "Lets Make It Happen," new ideas for seniors. Four Girl Scout week displays of current photos of scouting activities have been arranged by Troop #32.

Brownie Troop #29, Mount Joy has placed a display in Murphy's Store. Leaders of this troop are Spring Teleky and Nancy Kulp.

Cadette Troop #27, Mount Joy, with Jerri May and Beth Liggins as advisors will conduct a Flag ceremony each day this week at Junior High School while the Senior Troop #944 will give the announcements each day at Donegal High School. Georgina Hamer is the leader of this troop. They have also placed posters throughout Mount Joy promoting Girl Scout Week.

Brownie Troop #323, Mount Joy with Trudi Houck and Betty Bitzer as leaders, has arranged to have all the Brownies in the neighborhood view the film "The Yearling" followed by a birthday party at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, on March 12.

Troops will also entertain their sister troops.

Brownie Troop #34 has placed a display in Sells Barber Shop depicting the following; "What Scouting Is," and the three B's of Brownies—Be an Explorer, Be a funmaker, and Be a Ready Helper. Marion McKain, Vickie Smith and Ann Sipe are the leaders of this troop in Marietta.

Junior Troop #18, Marietta, has planned to attend the neighborhood swim party at Golden Meadows Swim Club, and conduct a fun night of games and contests at their regular meeting. Troop #18 has 26 members who have participated in council (Penn Laurel), calendar, cookie sales and made sock dolls for the Mount Joy Chapter Needlework Guild of America. They worked on Home, Health, and Safety Badge, and the World Neighbor Badge. They went caroling with Marietta Brownie Troops #34 and #666 and spent a day at Sam Lewis Park, where each girl cooked her own lunch on the "Vagabond Stove" she had made. Future schedules include a family roller skating party, a weekend camp-out at Furnace Hills Girl Scout Camp and an Awards Ceremony on June 2nd. Leaders are Joyce Heiserman and Betty Isminger. Brownie Troop #666 of Marietta, plans to attend the Neighborhood Swim and has placed a display in Spangler Appliance Store, W. Market Street, Marietta, for Girl Scout Week. They hope to attend the birthday party on invitation of Troop #323.

The Donegal Neighborhood has 318 scouts registered, 71 adults and 18 troops functioning. Nancy Kopf, Mount Joy, is Neighborhood Co-ordinator. The next Neighborhood meeting will be held on March 17, at 8PM in St. Luke's Episcopal Church, Mount Joy.
