Friendship Fire No. 1 needs ambulance help

Mount Joy's Friendship Fire Company No. 1 is looking for ambulance drivers who, in addition to driving the ambulance, will be required to do some lifting. Men should be 18 years of age or older and have a drivers license. They will be required to take a CPR course.

Also needed are persons willing to take some training in advanced first aide. Men or women should be 18 years of age or older, and they should be willing to run transports during the day. For more information on joining the crew, contact Nancy Miller at 653-4911 or Bill Martin at 653-1861.
